AN ORDER FOR HOLY COMMUNION

PRELUDE

Lee Armstrong Wineland

WELCOME

The Reverend Richard K. Wineland, Associate Rector for Evangelism and Parish Life

HYMN

God of grace and God of glory

Cwm Rhondda

#594 The Hymnal 1982

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The first portion of worship is called The Liturgy of the Word, which consists of Scripture readings, the sermon, the creed, and the Prayers of the People. The Bible is the foundation of Anglican worship; passages are read from the Old and New Testaments, and from the Psalms. Hymns and songs are sung that reflect biblical themes.

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Leader      Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit..
People      And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant may say

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE

If you believe and I believe

Zimbabwe traditional

If you believe and I believe, and we together pray
The Holy Spirit must come down and set God's people free

And set God's people free, and set God's people free
The Holy Spirit must come down and set God's people free

The word "Collect" comes from the Latin con lectione, or "with the readings." The Collect reflects the liturgical season and summarizes the message of the Bible readings in tonight's worship.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Leader      The Lord be with you.
People      And also with you.
Leader      Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17

Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to Ruth, "My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.” She said to her, “All that you tell me I will do.”

So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.” Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Reader      The Word of the Lord.
People      Thanks be to God.

The Psalms are the ancient songbook of the Jewish people.

PSALM 146

Lauda, anima mea

- 1    Hallelujah!
      Praise the LORD, O my soul! *
      I will praise the LORD as long as I live;
      I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.
- 2    Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of earth, * for there is no help in them.
- 3    When they breathe their last, they return to earth, * and in that day their thoughts perish.
- 4    Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! * whose hope is in the LORD their God;
- 5    Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
      who keeps his promise for ever;
- 6    Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
      and food to those who hunger.
- 7    The LORD sets the prisoners free;
      the LORD opens the eyes of the blind; *
      the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;
- 8    The LORD loves the righteous;
      the LORD cares for the stranger; *
      he sustains the orphan and widow,
      but frustrates the way of the wicked.
- 9    The LORD shall reign for ever, *
      your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
      Hallelujah!

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Reader      The Word of the Lord.
People      Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL HYMN

I surrender all

Van de Vanter and Weeden

All to Jesus I surrender, all to him I freely give
I will ever love and trust him, in his presence daily live

Refrain
I surrender all, I surrender all
All to thee, my blessed Savior, I surrender all

All to Jesus I surrender, humbly at his feet I bow
Worldly pleasures all forsaken, take me Jesus, take me now
Refrain

All to Jesus I surrender, make me, Savior, wholly thine
Let me feel the Holy Spirit, truly know that thou art mine
Refrain

All to Jesus I surrender, Lord, I give myself to thee
Fill me with thy love and power, let thy blessings fall on me
Refrain

It is the Church's ancient custom to stand while the gospel is read, as we honor the words and deeds of Jesus.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 12:38-44

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark. †††
People      Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus taught, he said, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation.”

He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Gospeller    The Gospel of the Lord.
People        Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON – Sister Hannah Winkler, CSM
A moment of silence and reflection follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of what the Church believes about God. It was born out of the councils of Nicaea and Constantinople in the 4th century.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
    he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
    he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
    and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
    he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
    in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
    and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
    and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
    who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son, he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
    † and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE (Form VI, BCP, p. 392)

The Leader and People pray responsively

In the presence of God and the community of faith, we acknowledge the many ways we have failed to live up to our calling as disciples of Christ. Yet we also know that in God's compassion and mercy we are already forgiven!

THE CONFESSION

Leader and People

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of all that enslaves us, for what we have done, and all that we have left undone. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Affirming the promise of God's mercy in Christ, the priest pronounces the Absolution as an assurance of forgiveness.

THE ABSOLUTION

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Shalom. Salam. La Paz del Señor.

Leader      The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People      And also with you.

There are also alms basins at the entrances to the worship space.*

OFFERTORY

Lee Armstrong Wineland

*We have declared our praise to God in prayer and song, heard the words of God in scripture and proclamation, and now we are welcomed to the Table of the Lord. The Sursum Corda (Latin for "lift up your hearts") is one of the most ancient parts of the service, dating to the third century.*

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING (Eucharistic Prayer A, p. 361)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then, facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

Blessed are you, O Lord our God; you bring forth bread from the earth and offer Jesus as the Bread of life and the Cup of our salvation. Grant that we who daily seek the bread which sustains our bodies may also hunger and thirst for the feast of love. The table is now to be made ready. It is the table of company with Jesus, and all who love him. It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world, with whom Jesus identified himself. It is the table of communion with the earth, in which Christ became incarnate.

So, come to this table that represents remembrance for the forgotten, companionship to the lonely, comfort for the sick, liberation for those who are oppressed, healing for the wounded, hope for the disparaged, and the good news of the Kin-dom of God.

Blessed are you, God of all grace. You are known to us in Jesus, who washed his disciple's feet and said, "I am among you as one who serves." It is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

Therefore we praise you, O God; joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus (Latin for "Holy") is a hymn based on the poem of creation in Isaiah 6:1-5. The Benedictus (Latin for "blessed") is based on Matthew 21:9 and Luke 13:35.

THE SANCTUS

Leader and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest!

(trad. Appalachian folk melody, Land of Rest)

The people stand or kneel. Then the Celebrant continues

On the night before he died, Jesus took bread and gave you thanks. He broke the bread and gave it to his disciples and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; gave you thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: For this is my Blood of the new Covenant, shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this to remember me."

Therefore, with this bread and wine we recall your goodness.

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Send your Holy Spirit upon this bread and wine that we may be nourished by your Presence, know your peace, and live in the strength of your Wisdom.

Bless us as we receive these gifts so that we may serve you in unity, constancy and peace, and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer, also known as the Our Father, is the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray, and has been a part of eucharistic liturgies since the early centuries of the church's history.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Leader As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name, thy
kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread reminds us of the sacrificial death of Christ on the cross. "This is my Body, which is given for you."

(Luke 22:19-20)

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God.

THE INVITATION

This table is made ready for those who love Him, and for those who want to love Him more. So come, you who have been here often and you who have not been here for a long time, you who have tried to follow Him and you who have failed. Come now, for it is God who invites you.

THE SACRAMENT IS DISTRIBUTED

(Music during Communion: Lee Armstrong Wineland)

The priest will provide directions regarding receiving Communion. You may eat the Bread and drink from the Chalice if you wish. If you would like to receive the Sacrament by intinction please leave the Bread in your hand. The chalice bearer will dip the Bread in the Wine and return it to your hand.

The Blessed Sacrament made with low-gluten bread is also available.

THE POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

(attributed to Francis of Assisi)

Leader Let us pray.

People Lord, make us instruments of your peace. Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

We joyfully end our time of worship with the priest's Blessing, and the declaration of God's never-ending love and favor toward his people. The Dismissal sends us out from this place to love and serve others in the name of Christ.
