FROM THE DEAN

The Very Reverend Kenneth Swanson, Ph.D.
Dean and Rector

Thinking About Lent

In some ways Lent is analogous to what we feel in those times when God is silent. We people of faith don't know exactly what to call it: "Darkness;" "Absence;" "Desert;" "Wilderness;" "Cloud of Unknowing;" or "Night." But all who have walked with God, all who in great thirst have drunk deeply from the love of God, all who battered by the seeming vagaries of life who have been soothed by the balm of Gilead, in other words all people of sincere faith have known it.

The one who created and sustains us, the one who gives us the wisdom and courage to face anything, the one in whom our well being and identity rest, is gone.

And we are left, alone, terrifyingly alone. The prophets knew it. Jeremiah wrote, "He has made my teeth grind on gravel; and made me cower in ashes; my soul is bereft of peace; I have forgotten what happiness is... Is there any sorrow like my sorrow?"

The Psalmist knew it: "I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast; my mouth is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death."

Even his own Son, the one he himself declared was beloved, knew it. Jesus, baptized, came up out of the water to those blessed words, and was immediately driven into the wilderness, into darkness, into night, into silence, only silence from his loving Father. Forty days. Forty nights. Alone, abandoned, alone with only temptation as his company. But in that silence, resisting temptation, he discovered his true identity. In that darkness, he was able to look beyond, look through to the light of redemption. In that absence, in that desert, he discovered how he was to live, how he was to die, and how he would live again. He knew. Creation itself knew. The heavenly host knew. For at the end, when the silence was over, when the darkness retreated before the light, when the desert bloomed, he was with the wild beasts and angels waited on him. Creation itself knew. The heavenly host knew. Only humanity did not yet know.

So my sisters and brothers, I invite you to a holy Lent. And if you choose to enter the silence, the darkness by intentionally fasting, or if you simply find yourself overwhelmed in what feels like a desert, remember that even there we are not abandoned. Even there we are not alone. For wherever we may wander, Jesus has been there before, and whether we know or not, he is with us. He is with us, calling out our true identity, allowing us to see the light of his redemption, showing us how we are to live.

"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. 'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul, 'therefore I will hope in him.'"

“Christian Responsibility and Community Outreach: A Christ Church Cathedral Lenten Series”

hosted by the Young Adults Ministry

Four Consecutive Thursday Evenings
March 8, 15, 22 and 29

These four weeks in Lent allow us to examine ourselves and how we will reach out to others through faithful relationships of outreach and service. Everyone from across the Cathedral community is welcome! Each evening will consist of a time of fellowship, a simple soup supper, and a focused presentation alerting each of us on how to become more involved on local, regional, and international levels of mission.

ST. LUKE’S COMMUNITY HOUSE

March 8

Parishioner Chris Sanders, St. Luke’s Director of Development

St. Luke’s Community House serves low-income people of West Nashville by offering a variety of family-oriented services, such as child development programs, mobile meals to the elderly and handicapped, services for senior citizens, a teen program, a Christmas toy store, utilities assistance, the This ‘n That Thrift Shop, a clinic, and emergency food distribution. [Volunteer opportunities are available here and across Nashville.]

CAMP COAST CARE

March 15

Parishioner Shelton Clark with Mark Hunter of Trinity Church – Clarksville

Camp Coast Care has been critical to the cleanup and rebuilding of communities along the Mississippi Gulf Coast since the days following Hurricane Katrina. Located on the campus of Coast Episcopal School in Long Beach, MS, Camp Coast Care is a mission point of the Lutheran and Episcopal Disaster Response, funded in large part through Episcopal Relief and Development. Volunteer work crews composed of all skill levels are organized daily to go out into the communities to help residents. [Two future cathedral mission trips are being discussed for May and June.]

SIHAWUKELWE LAUREN’S CHILDREN’S HOME

March 22

Parishioner Sandi Griffith, SLCH Board President, with other Board-members

Sihawukelwe Lauren’s Children’s Home is a children’s orphanage near Durban, in the rural community of Umzinyathi, within the heart of Zulu tribal land, and suffers from the highest rate of HIV/AIDS in all South Africa. “Sihawukelwe” is Zulu for “God has had compassion on us”. This mission demonstrates how each of us can become involved in changing, not only the lives of a few, but the lives of a community and a country. [Summer Pilgrimage]

THE AMISTAD MISSION

March 29

Parishioners Joanne Knight & Walker Mathews, Amistad Board-members

The Amistad Mission takes care of 106 children by providing them with a home and a family ranging in ages from 3 to 22. Since Dean Swanson’s arrival ten years ago, a vision for an outreach ministry in one of the poorest countries in the world has become a reality for us at Christ Church Cathedral. In addition to those children at the orphanage in Cochabamba, we serve the Quechua Indian families who live in the village of Aramasi in the high Andes. Here again, this mission demonstrates how each of us can become involved in changing, not only the lives of a few, but the lives of a community and a country. [Fall Pilgrimage]

Please join us at the Cathedral on each of these Thursday evenings, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in Cheek Hall. The cost of dinner is $7, and childcare will be provided. Please RSVP to Marti Lawson at <mailto:mlawson@christcathedral.org> by noon on Tuesday before each event. For more information or details, contact Canon Corkern at 255-7729.

Prepare ye the way of the Lord

Palm Sunday, April 1, 2007

Come make the events of the Passion come alive. During the 8:30 a.m. service, children are invited to participate in the Palm Sunday Procession.

Following that service, from 10-11 a.m., everyone is invited to the Palm Sunday Event.

Join in the "Prayer Walk of the Passion," remembering Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem and experiencing the events preceding His crucifixion and resurrection.

Youth Happenings at the Cathedral

Youth Basketball Season Comes to A Close

There has been much dedication, fun, and skill witnessed throughout the season. There were a lot of early Saturday mornings that our youth chose to come and play basketball instead of sleeping-in. Our teams and coaches have earned a great reputation for wonderful sportsmanship.

There have been some victories and some losses, but an overall wonderful opportunity to play and fellowship. Playing on our Jr. High team was Devon Urness, Jack Masterson, Jake and Wilson West, Vova Schafer, Will Kochtitzky, Beau and Will Dossett and Andrew Wright. Representing our High School Boy's team was Nicky Spiva, Calvin Masterson, Sam and Edward Linton, Tyler Wright, Harrison Ballard, Lindsay Bohannon, Markham Shofner and Matt Ferrell. Playing for the Girl's basketball team was Karina McGowin, Adrie Duke, Jesse Shofner, India John, Amelia Ingle, Litton Whitaker and Kathleen Catherall. A special thanks for all the players and families that participated. We are truly blessed to have had the best coaches in the league this season. Thank you, Thor Urness, Kate Viebranz and Scott Viebranz for all your time and constant encouragement! The End of the Season Banquet will be held Monday, March 5, from 6-7 p.m. at Calvary UMC.

Lara Wiggins

What's Coming Up:

March 18-23

A group of 16 youth and adult chaperones from St. George's and Christ Church Cathedral will be traveling to the mountains of the Dominican Republic to help complete an Episcopal school. We will meet new people, begin new relationships and continue the good work that has already begun in Jarabacoa, Dominican Republic. Those who are attending the trip will be commissioned on March 11 at the 8:30 a.m. service. We will also have a meeting and share in the Eucharist on Sunday evening at 6 p.m. on March 11 at St. George's. Please keep us in your prayers! This is our first alternative spring break trip as a youth group!

Bible Study Information

We returned to our regular schedule on January 16. Please call the youth office at 255-7729 with questions, or email your Bible study leader.

7th & 8th Grade meets on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-7:45 p.m. in the Youth room, 810 Broadway, across the street from the Cathedral. Come for dinner in Cheek Hall first at 5:30 p.m. Matt Kimball will lead these Jr. High youth in an evening of basic Bible stories.

9th and 10th Grade meets on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-7:45 p.m. in the Faith Matters room over in the 810 building. Come for dinner first in Cheek Hall at 5:30 p.m. This group is led by our youth minister Lara Wiggins.

11th Grade meets on Tuesday evenings, 6 p.m., at Starbucks in Belle Meade. Lara will be helping the 11th graders look at the Old Testament.

12th Grade Girls Bible Study meets at Leslie Bridgers' home, 2806 Wimbledon Road, off of Woodmont in Green Hills, at 7 p.m. on Wednesday evenings. These ladies will look at Acts.

Check out the Youth page on the Cathedral website www.christcathedral.org/youthprograms1.html for dates of all events and upcoming trips.

Services of Holy Week

Holy Week begins on Palm Sunday with the Liturgy of the Palms, which celebrates Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. The celebrant gives thanks over the branches, and there is a festive procession with songs of "Hosanna in the highest!" as we enact the event which led directly to Good Friday. The second part of the Palm Sunday liturgy changes from triumph to tragedy as it focuses on the suffering and death of Jesus. The account of the Lord's Passion is read from the Gospel.

Tenebrae is the Latin word for "darkness" or "shadows." The most conspicuous feature of the service is the gradual extinguishing of candles and other lights until only a single candle, considered a symbol of our Lord, remains. Toward the end of the service this candle is hidden, typifying the apparent victory of the forces of evil. At the very end, a loud noise is made, symbolizing the earthquake at the time of Christ's death. The hidden candle is restored to its place, and by its light all depart in silence.

Maundy Thursday is a celebration of our Lord's institution of the sacrament of his Body and Blood, but it is pervaded by the shadow of the cross. Jesus gathered with his friends in the context of the Passover. It was a farewell dinner in which Jesus, by washing his disciples' feet, sought to illustrate one final time the character of love and ministry which is central in the life to which he calls us. We hear the ancient instructions for celebrating the Passover and Paul's account of the institution of the Eucharist.

On Good Friday we hear John's account of the Lord's trial, suffering, and death. We will engage in intense intercessory prayer for the church and for the world. It was on the cross that Jesus made his full intercession for us, and we are united with him through Baptism in that intercession. At the end of the liturgy, the church is left in silence and darkness.

The Holy Saturday liturgy recalls Jesus' burial and reminds us that the day is a period of preparation for the great celebration of Easter.

The Great Vigil of Easter is unlike any other service in the year. We celebrate the Passover of Jesus from death into life and our own Passover from death into life in Holy Baptism. The service has four parts. First is the Service of Light, in which the light of Christ is rekindled in the darkness. During the Vigil, we celebrate and make present stories of major events of salvation history. We renew the covenant of our Baptism, and we celebrate the Holy Eucharist. This is the first Eucharist of Easter.

Parish Life

Who is our new bishop? He is the Right Reverend John Crawford Bauerschmidt, the eleventh Bishop of Tennessee elected and duly consecrated to serve as chief pastor for all Episcopalians within the environs of Middle Tennessee.

A native of Columbia, South Carolina, Bishop Bauerschmidt has degrees from Kenyon College, General Theological Seminary and an earned doctorate from Oxford University. Prior to his election as bishop on October 28, he served a variety of parishes in Massachusetts, North Carolina and Louisiana. Close to our own hearts, he and his wife Caroline have chosen to call Christ Church Cathedral home with their sons aged fifteen and twelve, and a daughter who is nine.

This dinner is specifically designed to allow young adults (i.e. those in their 20s and 30s) from across the diocese to welcome Bishop Bauerschmidt for an evening of sharing and fellowship while reflecting upon the future of the Diocese and the Church. Please join us at the Cathedral on Thursday, March 1, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. The cost of dinner is $7, and childcare will be provided. Please RSVP to Marti Lawson at <mailto:mlawson@christcathedral.org>.

Christ Church Cathedral Men's Book Discussion Group

This monthly gathering is designed to provide men across Christ Church Cathedral with a time and place for fellowship together and theological reflection. We will convene for dinner and discussion 7-9 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month at the home of Matthew & Alice Corkern, 210 Woodmont Circle. A spiritual and/or literary work will be chosen in consultation with the group for each succeeding month.

Top Jesus scholars Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan join together in The Last Week "to retell a story everyone thinks they know too well and most do not seem to know at all." Consequently, they reveal a radical and little-known Jesus. As both authors reacted to and responded to questions about Mel Gibson's blockbuster The Passion of the Christ, they discovered that many Christians are unclear on the details of events during the week leading up to Jesus's crucifixion. Using the gospel of Mark as their guide, Borg and Crossan present a day-by-day account of Jesus' final week of life. The Jesus introduced by Borg and Crossan is this new moral hero, a more dangerous Jesus than the one enshrined in the church's traditional teachings. Quite impressively, this work demonstrates the redemptive power of Holy Week and calls all readers into a new vision within the midst of Lent. Informed, challenged, and inspired, we not only meet the historical Jesus, but meet a new Jesus who engages us and invites us to follow him.

We gather the second Tuesday, March 13, at 7 p.m. Please RSVP to Marti Lawson at mlawson@christcathedral.org by 12 Noon on the day before the event. Each participant is asked to bring $5 to defray the cost of the meal. For directions or information, contact Kevin Douglas at 742-7767 and kdouglas@bassberry.com, or Canon Corkern at 255-7729 and mcorkern@christcathedral.org. Books available at any local bookstore or on-line.

It's That Time Again! Parish Weekend Away

It's time to sign up for the Annual Parish Weekend Away Friday, May 4 through Sunday, May 6 at Standing Stone State Park. It's one of the best ways to meet new friends and reconnect with old ones. For more information, contact Hosanna Banks at 227-2386, hosannabanks@hotmail.com.

Parish Outreach

Make a Difference in the Nashville Community or Around the World

A new Outreach Committee has been formed, the Community Investment and Economic Justice Committee, to support community investment and micro-lending agencies in Nashville and around the world. The Vestry has approved for 2007 a loan from the Christ Church Cathedral endowment to a U.S. non-profit that provides partial guarantees of South African bank loans to minority applicants and micro-loan agencies. The Committee was formed to expand this ministry to include investments in community development and micro-loan agencies in metropolitan Nashville. The Mission is to provide the Cathedral parishioners opportunities to proclaim the Gospel, participate in community investing and empower the less fortunate to gain dignity and self-sufficiency through participation, in their local economies. If you have an interest in joining the Committee, learning more about it or sharing a community investment opportunity, please contact Randy McCathren at rmccathren@blcassociates.com or 383-1930.

Volunteers Needed For: Receptionist/Greeter

A new agency has formed in Nashville called ROOFTOP. The purpose of this group, in partnership with Metro Social Service, is to help the near homeless with rental assistance. Each client is referred by participating churches, screened by metro, and then screened by ROOFTOP. Christ Church Cathedral participates in referring clients who are homeless and needs rental assistance to ROOFTOP. Volunteers are needed to greet and assist clients when they arrive for their appointments. Clients are seen twice a week from 12:30 p.m. -2:30 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays. ROOFTOP is located in the Annex building at Christ Cathedral.

If you are interested in Volunteering on Mondays and Thursdays from 12:30-2:30 p.m. please email Lisa Wooley at lisawooley@comcast.net with dates and times you are available.

Saturday, March 3,
TPAC "Eclipse: Visions of the Crescent & Cross" Full Performance. Reconciliation Groups to attend and have discussion after performance over dessert and coffee. Call Jane Boram, 500-2446 for details.

Monday, March 12, Christ Church Cathedral's Faith and Ethics in the Workplace committee chaired by Craig Philip, John Lavey and Nancy Hopper is accepting reservations for our next event. The event is Monday, March 12 immediately following Dr. Tony Campolo's presentation on "Eliminating Poverty with Faith Based Business Initiatives." Dr. Campolo has written thirty-three books on a variety of subjects related to social issues and religion. Our group will gather to discuss Dr. Campolo's presentation and have a light dinner for one hour following the presentation in one of the Belmont classrooms. Everyone is invited to attend. We must reserve space with Belmont for our group so please RSVP immediately to Nancy Hopper, at 615-690-4364 or nlhopper2000@yahoo.com.

Networking Reception begins at 4:30 p.m.

Dr. Campolo's Presentation begins at 5 p.m.

2007 Lenten Food Drive Sunday, March 25

"What so ever you do to the least of my brothers, that you do unto me."

For the last few years during Lent, Christ Church Cathedral has conducted a food drive benefiting Second Harvest Food Bank. The Community Outreach Committee has designated Sunday, March 25, as the day when canned vegetables, peanut butter and other food items will be collected in the Baptistry. In addition, there will also be a Cathedral Virtual Food Drive which will be conducted from March 4 through March 31. Here is how it works: Go to www.secondharvestnashville.org. Click on the "brown grocery bag" icon labeled Virtual Food Drives on your left This takes you to the Virtual Food Drives that are going on right now. You will see our food drive here Christ Church Cathedral. Click on the logo and it will take you to the page where you simply click on the items or money amount you would like to donate. Then you will proceed to checkout just like shopping on line. Christ Church Cathedral will be the first congregation in Nashville to conduct a Virtual Food Drive and all donations will be credited to the Cathedral. Choose your way of giving to help feed hungry people in Middle Tennessee.

Homeless and Transient Visitors

On Sunday mornings, homeless and transient visitors come to the Cathedral seeking help. In an effort to meet their needs, trained volunteers are on duty each Sunday morning. A trained volunteer from the Wayfarer's Committee will welcome these visitors and help them to find temporary assistance either through the Cathedral or at community social service agencies. If you are approached by anyone seeking help, please send them to the receptionist who will refer them to the Volunteer helper. As they will receive some help from the Cathedral, we strongly suggest that you do not give them money or food. In this way, we can be caring and welcoming to these visitors in a responsible way. If you would like more information on becoming a member of the Wayfarer's Committee, please contact Geoffrey Butcher at 255-7729 or Bill Coke at 665-1992.

Help is Needed!

On March 23, Christ Church will host an exciting new musical venture as part of the Sacred Space for the City Arts Series; our first annual J.S. Bach mini-marathon. Bachanalia is bringing together more than 60 musicians for 6 straight hours of Bach's music. Scheduled from 5pm to 11 pm on a Friday evening, this is a free community event with professional musicians from all over Nashville donating their services to participate. Everything from organ passacaglias to a saxophone quartet playing preludes and fugues will encompass the full range of Bach's prodigious output in expected and unexpected ways. But we need your help! Such a long event needs a lot of hands. We need shifts of stage hands, ushers, people to help with snack sales at intermissions and performer "wranglers." Please consider being a part of this new tradition in Nashville! Email or call Susan Dupont 298-2711 or susan.dupont@comcast.net or sign up at the reception desk.

The Magic and Joy of Liturgical Flowers

The consecration of Bishop Bauerschmidt in a glorious way gave us the magic, beauty and joy of flowers and the importance they play in our worship services. Marlin Sanders and Lou Ann Brown invite you to participate in a class on choosing, preparing and arranging plant material for the liturgical setting-feast days as well as the typical Sunday alter arrangements.

There will be demonstrations of arrangements appropriate for the alter area in a typical church setting. Slides and handouts will accompany the presentation. Please come and join us from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Saturday, March 10 and enjoy the fellowship of others called to this important ministry. We will have the class in the Nave at Christ Church Cathedral, 900 Broadway. Morning refreshments will be served. Please call Joanne Knight at 665 9449 to reserve your place.

Easter Flowers: If you would like to give a gift for flowers in the chancel at Easter in honor or in memory of friends or family, please send your check marked "Easter flowers" to the attention of Sandra Merritt at the Cathedral. Please enclose a note telling who the gift is from and for whom it is given. The deadline for inclusion in the Easter service leaflet is Monday, March 5.

Easter Music: If you would like to give a gift for music at Easter in honor or in memory of friends or family, please send your check marked "Easter music" to the attention of Michael Velting at the Cathedral. Please enclose a note telling who the gift is from and for whom it is given. The deadline for inclusion in the Easter service leaflet is Monday, March 5.

Baptisms: The next opportunity for baptism at the Cathedral will be Saturday, April 7, 6 p.m. at the Great Vigil of Easter. To schedule a baptism, please contact Sandra Merritt at 255-7729 or smerritt@christcathedral.org.

Daughters of the King: Daughters of the King will meet at 8 a.m. on Sunday, March 11, in Anne Steven-son's office on the 2nd floor.

Prayers for World Peace In the Taizé Tradition

Parking At the Cathedral: Please refrain from parking in spaces marked for staff members when visiting the Cathedral, including Sunday mornings. Most of our staff is active on site for at least part of the morning, and need quick access to come and go and come again. Also, please remember that all unmarked spaces in the A lot are reserved for persons with mobility problems on Sunday mornings. Parking for the able-bodied is available in B and C lots, behind the Frist Center, in the Lifeway lot behind the Holiday Inn and Lifeway lot across Commerce from our C lot. And finally, please do not at any time park in the handicapped spaces in the A lot, unless you are sporting a handicap tag.

We thank you for your consideration.

ATTENTION

Do you have a new mailing address, phone number, or email address? Please remember to provide them to the church. Contact Sandra Merritt, Registrar, at 255-7729, or registrar@christcathedral.org.
