Those persons attending the Diocesan Convention in Memphis from Christ Church are: The Rev. Thomas N. Caruthers, The Rev. J. F. McCloud, The Rev. Homer P. Starr, Mrs. Annie V. Coldewey, Diocesan Secretary of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Thomas H. Malone, Jr., Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. Warren C. Brown, Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. Colin M. Robertson, Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. M. E. Nellums, Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. John E. Thomas, and Mrs. S. B. Ziegler, Daughters of the King; Mr. Charles S. Martin, Sr., Douglas M. Wright and Dudley Gale.

MRS. QUIN TO SPEAK TO AUXILIARY

At the next regular monthly luncheon meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, which will be held on February 5, Mrs. Clinton S. Quin, wife of Bishop Quin of the Diocese of Texas, will speak. Mrs. Quin was elected chairman of the Executive Board of the Woman's Auxiliary to the National Council, at the last General Convention. She is one of the foremost speakers in the Episcopal Church, and will bring to the women of Christ Church a worth-while message.

All women of the parish are urged to attend this meeting. Please note the change in date for this meeting only.

THE PRAYER CORNER

Warm my cold heart, Lord, I beseech Thee. Take away all that hinders me from giving myself to Thee. Mould me according to Thine own image; give me grace to obey Thee in all things and ever to follow Thy gracious leading. Make me this day to be kind to my fellow-men, to be gentle and unselfish, careful to hurt no one by word or deed, but anxious to do good to all and to make others happy. Forgive all my hasty words and unchristian thoughts; make me watchful that I offend not with my tongue. Give me a meek and loving spirit, which is in Thy sight of great price. I would not live unto myself but unto Thee. Keep me from sin this day and all that may offend Thee, for Jesus Christ's sake.—Amen.—Bishop Ashton Oxenden, A.D. 1808.

"WHAT WE BELIEVE ABOUT THE BIBLE"

Doxology
Offertory—The Conversion Matthews

And Saul, yet breathing out threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, and desired of him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, that he might bring the disciples bound unto Jerusalem.

And as he journeyed, he came near to Damascus: And suddenly there shined round about him a great light from heaven, and he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him:

Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
And he said, Who art thou, Lord?
And the Lord said to him, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

And he, trembling and astonished, said, Lord, Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do?

Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

Arise, O Lord, and shine
In all Thy saving might,
And prosper each design
To spread Thy glorious light.
Let healing streams of mercy flow
That all the earth Thy truth may know.

Put forth Thy glorious power.
The nations then shall see,
And earth present her store
In converts born to Thee.
God, our own God, His Church shall bless
And earth be filled with righteousness.

Closing prayers and benediction
Recessional Hymn—No. 526
Postlude—Allegromestoso West

POTENTIAL FRIENDSHIPS

Let love of the brethren continue. Forget not to show love unto strangers for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.—Hebrews 13: 1, 2.

And the King answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.—St. Matthew 25: 40.

How many new friends are we going to make this year? We have so many exciting possibilities in our cities, with so many people from every corner of the Union constantly coming and going. Sometimes, however, we forget about them. We make our own cozy, congenial circle of friends and acquaintances and become perfectly satisfied with what one limited group can give us. Meeting new people is an adventure and a stimulus. It definitely adds something to our own personality.

There is another side to the situation, too. Many of you came to the city knowing no one. Remember the warm feeling of gratitude you had toward the first person who was cordial and friendly? He certainly made a warm bright spot in a large and lonely city. Many times we hesitate to make a friendly gesture, for fear of seeming presuming. We hang back and let others make the first move. Perhaps they are hesitating, too, so nobody get very far. It is foolish to jump to the conclusion that someone is being unfriendly. He may be just shy! And remember what that dreadful feeling can do to you. Let's check up on ourselves. Are we tolerant and friendly toward everyone? With a little effort we can broaden our horizon with many new friends.—Betsy Winter.

THOUGHTS FOR THE THOUGHTFUL

Lord, we pray not for tranquility, not that our tribulations may cease; we pray for Thy Spirit and Thy Love, that Thou grant us strength and grace to overcome adversity.—Savonarola.

Christianity sprang up among the Jews. If science is from the Greeks and law is from the Romans, "salvation is of the Jews." Religion was the one absorbing idea and interest of that people as it has never been of any other. The Son of Man is the Son of David.—
Dr. G. P. Fisher.

Jesus, who, as the sinless One, cannot have the reasons for humility that we have, yet teaches us by example what He has taught by precept. The accessories of His birth, the employments of His youth and early manhood, His relation to His parents, His choice of His disciples, His stern refusal of human praise and human honor; the silence which He enjoined about His miracles; the rebuke which He administered to the flatterer who, supposing Him to be only human called Him "good" — these, and much else were His methods of teaching us humility.—
Canon Liddon.
