MARCH 2012 Volume 63, Issue 63

From the Dean

*Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances;
for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you*

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Come mid-Lent, you will notice that the Celebrant on Sunday mornings uses a different Proper Preface in the Canon of the Mass. The Proper Preface gives the whole Eucharistic Prayer its seasonal character and focus. Early in Lent we are reminded of the power we are given, as members of Christ's Body, to resist sin and "triumph over evil." The Proper Preface will not let us forget Christ's temptation by Satan in the desert and the utter futility of the Adversary's advance.

But sometime after the Third Sunday in Lent, the Celebrant will use the second of the two Proper Prefaces for Lent in the Book of Common Prayer (BCP, p. 379). This preface addresses God the Father and expresses the hope that the People of God will "come to the fullness of grace." Only here the prayer does not bring to mind the Exhortation from the Ash Wednesday Liturgy which emphasizes the observance of a holy Lent. Rather, we are enjoined to "prepare with joy for the Paschal feast."

For those who have experienced Lent—its fasting and call to repentance—as a necessarily forbidding detour in the journey toward the empty tomb, the words "prepare with joy" may seem like a non sequitur. For those who would characterize the life of devotion ("fervent in prayer"), the life of service ("and in works of mercy"), the life steeped in the Sacraments ("and renewed by Word and Sacraments"), and the life of purity ("You bid your faithful people cleanse their hearts") as enervating, boring, life-denying, or just no longer relevant to the changing spiritual needs of the modern day Christian, such mention of joy in Lent may seem misplaced.

Nevertheless, the Liturgy sets this joy before us. Although Christ's agony, betrayal, capture, torture, and execution are unmistakable parts of the drama unfolding before us, still joy is to be our vocation. If the Lenten fast of these forty days cuts against the grain of a life conditioned on immediate gratification, comfort, and self-satisfaction, someone is bound to shout, "I find no reason at all to be joyful at this time!"

But the Apostle does call us to rejoice always—in everything, at all times, in the depths of despair, and on the mountaintop of expectation. Joy is to characterize the Christian's walk not only on Easter morning but all along every mile of the pilgrimage to Calvary. Whether we face failure, poverty, hunger, disease, sickness, pain, war, terror, and confusion—our mandate is to rejoice. The power of Christ's passion and resurrection prepares us to rejoice. The power of Christ's passion and resurrection equips us to counter every sign of a fallen creation with the promise of renewal and the hope of salvation.

The second Proper Preface for the season of Lent, again addressed to God, ends by answering the question "why." Why do we keep this fast? Why do we prepare for the Paschal feast? We keep it in order that the baptized "may come to the fullness of grace which you have prepared for those who love you." To journey through Lent to Easter—to walk in joy—is to learn how to love God.

The Very Reverend Timothy E. Kimbrough, Dean and Rector

CORNERSTONE

LENT AT THE CATHEDRAL

The Lenten Fast

The Book of Common Prayer identifies all weekdays of Lent and Holy Week as days to be "observed by special acts of discipline and self-denial" (BCP, p. 17), excepting the Feast of the Annunciation (March 25).

This may take the form of a fast from particular foods. Fast from meat, dairy products, sugars, sweets, caffeine, and alcohol have been time-honored across the sweep of Christian history. Bible study, devotion at prayer, almsgiving, and the performing of acts of mercy, are also "special acts of discipline" that the Christian may embrace.

Social events hosted on the campus of Christ Church Cathedral will seek to refrain from serving meat, sweets, and caffeine during the weekdays of Lent.

Reconciliation of a Penitent

Following the form in the Book of Common Prayer called, "Reconciliation of a Penitent", Christ Church Cathedral priests will be available to hear confessions during Lent every Thursday from 11:00 a.m. to 12 noon in the Chapel or by appointment. See page 8 for more information.

Open Doors

A Lenten discipline undertaken by the whole community this year, in the name of hospitality, will see that the doors of the Cathedral at 9th and Broadway be opened to the city between 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. Come to pray. Come to watch. Come to read the paper. Come to work on laptop. Whatever you need to bring with you for the time, come and sign up for a one hour watch. The Dean is hopeful that three Cathedral communicants will be present at each hour that we are open.

Lenten Food Drive

Two Sundays, Lent 4, March 18 and Lent 5, March 25, have been set aside for a community-wide Food Drive. See page 6.

Hundred Hands of Mercy

The next 100 Hands of Mercy event is slated to take place at the Second Harvest warehouse on Saturday, March 31. All ages are welcome to join in the project. See additional information on this page.

Diocesan Chorister Festival Lenten Evensong

Sunday, March 4, 4:00 p.m. in the Nave. See page 4.

Special Educational Offerings

Watch the Cathedral website christcathedral.org for more detail on our Lenten Observances: Wednesday series with Victor Judge; and Monday Bible Study with Gene Manning etc.

Give thanks for your parish community and pray for those in positions of leadership. Pray for the Life of the World. And pray for the spiritual refreshment of your household.

PASTORAL NOTES

HOSPITAL ADMISSIONS:

Please contact the clergy directly or Peggy Tucker in the church office 615.255.7729 whenever you or a loved one are admitted to the hospital. The clergy would like to visit and offer prayers. The hospital admission clerks may ask specific questions about your religious preference, your denomination and your church but they will not notify the Cathedral to let us know you are there. Governmental regulations (HIPAA) prohibit release of health information to third parties so we must rely upon you to let us know to which hospital you or a member of the parish has been admitted.

ON CALL:

A member of the clergy is always on call for any emergency that may arise. Please call the church office 615.255.7729 and a member of the clergy will be in touch with you.

ARE YOU EXPECTING A CHILD?

The birth or adoption of a child is an amazing time in the life of a family and in the life of a parish. We want to know when your family is expecting/adopting a child so that members of the clergy can reach out to you. Please contact The Reverend Canon Gene Manning 615.255.7729 so that we can welcome your new baby into the community.

PRAYER LISTS:

There are two different prayers lists at the Cathedral; the Sunday Prayer list and the Weekday Chapel Prayer list. You may add names to one or both lists at any time if the person you wish to add has given you permission to do so. Please contact a member of the clergy or Peggy Tucker 615.255.7729 to submit a name to the lists. Those on the Sunday Prayer list are prayed for during the Prayers of the People and the names are printed in the Sunday Order of Worship. Individuals on the Weekday Prayer list are prayed for at the 12:15 p.m. daily Eucharist.

Unless otherwise indicated, we will pray for each person three consecutive weeks. The person placing the name on the list must contact the Church office 615.255.7729, if the name should remain on the list for an additional three weeks.

100 Hands For Mercy Event Saturday, March 31 9:30-11:30 a.m.

The next "100 Hands of Mercy" event for the Christ Church Cathedral community has been scheduled for Saturday, March 31. That morning Christ Church Cathedral friends and communicants of all ages are asked to meet at the Second Harvest Food Bank, 331 Great Circle Road to sort food donations. Please plan to arrive by 9:30 a.m. We will finish our work by 11:30 a.m. 100 Hands of Mercy events are opportunities for the Cathedral community to perform acts of mercy together, to enjoy one another's fellowship, and to learn about the variety of servant ministry opportunities in the area.

Dreams: Listening to God's Voice

March 5, 12, & 19

11:00 a.m.

How did/does God speak and reveal himself to his people through dreams? The Reverend Canon Gene Manning will lead a study examining several of the significant dreams described in Holy Scripture. From Abraham to Jacob to the Holy Family what do we learn from these holy intrusions in the middle of the night? The class will meet at 11 a.m. and continuing for three weeks. Childcare is provided.

LITURGICAL NOTES

◆ "Solemn" — During Holy Week and the month of April you will occasionally find a liturgy posted in the Order of Worship as "Solemn HE". Use of the word "Solemn" before the letters "HE" indicates a sung celebration of the Holy Eucharist accompanied by the use of incense and bells.

◆ "Veiling" — The practice of veiling visible objects in the Nave, e.g. crosses, icons, statues, carvings, during Lent and/or Holy Week arose in the Medieval English Church for the purpose of encouraging a kind of "visual fast". The refrain from the experience of beauty during Holy Week helped one prepare for, and sharpened the brilliance of, the Paschal Feast.

◆ "The Feast of the Annunciation," the day on which the Church celebrates the visit of the Angel Gabriel to the Blessed Mother is a fixed feast day. It always falls on March 25. It is a feast day even if it falls during the 40 days of Lent. The Book of Common Prayer further notes that this feast may not take precedence of a Sunday. Therefore, since March 25 falls on a Sunday this year, the church calendar "bumps" (counter-intuitively for a fixed feast day) the celebration to the nearest available day: Monday, March 26. Please observe that Monday as a feast day and note that the propers for the noonday Eucharist will be those of the Annunciation.

SUMMARY OF VESTRY MINUTES

At its regularly scheduled meeting of January 24, 2012, the Cathedral Vestry:

- received the second interim report of the Vestry Nominating Committee;
- restored $1,237 to the 2012 Outreach Committee budget so as to prevent and reduction in the funds available for ministry over the previous year's budget. The monies were allocated from the 2011 budget surplus;
- received the report of the ad hoc Balance the Budget committee of the Vestry. The 2012 Budget provided for the restoration of numerous program cuts in 2011, for the hire of a new Director of Communications, and for a 2% Cathedral staff salary raise;
- received the report of the Mission Statement drafting committee. Tyler Yarbrow plans to present the work of the Vestry to the parish at the Annual Parish meeting;
- learned from the Dean about the progress of the Journey in Faith class this year and the use of the Journey in Faith service card;
- received the report of the Finance Committee indicating that the Cathedral ended 2011 with a favorable $135,197 variance in budgeted income and a favorable $74,652 variance in budgeted expenses.

13th Annual Diocesan Chorister Festival Christ Church Cathedral March 3-4, 2012

Choral Evensong
Sunday, March 4, 2012
4:00 p.m.

Christ Church Cathedral Senior Choristers and their Directors, Canon Dr. Velting and Mr. Johnson will host Choristers from our Diocese at the 13th Annual Diocesan Chorister Festival, held at the Cathedral on the first weekend of March 2012. This year as our guest director we welcome Canon Michael McCarthy, Director of Music at Washington National Cathedral.

The Festival is a two-day event sponsored by the Cathedral and the Diocese. Saturday is filled with fun rehearsals and social time 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Choristers then return to the Cathedral on Sunday afternoon to participate in the Festival Evensong, which is the culmination of all their hard work. For the fifth year in a row, Bishop Bauerschmidt will officiate at Evensong in the company of Cathedral and Diocesan clergy.

For the last several years, in addition to Choristers from the Diocese of Tennessee, we have had the participation of Choristers from St. Francis' Church, Potomac, Maryland, and from the Church of the Nativity in Huntsville, Alabama. We are very happy that a number of those Choristers along with their Directors will again join our Diocesan Choristers as our guests in March.

William Faulkner's fourth novel, The Sound and the Fury, represents the author's first, true masterpiece, and perhaps his finest work. The novel was Faulkner's favorite creation and described by him as his "most splendid failure" in which he depicts in four movements, presented from the perspectives of four narrators, the decline of the once-aristocratic Compson family.

Victor Judge serves as the assistant dean for academic affairs at Vanderbilt University Divinity School where he is also lecturer in literature and religion. He is a parishioner at the Cathedral of the Incarnation where he teaches in the Adult Formation Program and in the Breaking Open of the Word ministry for catechumens.

From The Youth Pastor...

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted by Satan; Come quickly to help us who are assaulted by many temptations; and, as you know the weaknesses of each of us, let each one find you mighty to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Whatever else Lent may be about, it must first of all be about Jesus. If we fast and pray and serve the poor, it is because Jesus fasted, prayed and served the poor. If we willingly enter into some form of suffering for forty days, it is because Jesus entered into suffering for forty days. Lent is ultimately not about giving up snacks for the sake of self-denial. It is about giving up self-centeredness for the sake of Jesus, and with him acknowledging that God alone is worthy of our worship.

In the Gospel for the First Sunday of Lent Jesus is led into the desert for forty days to be tempted and tested – tempted as Adam and Eve were, tested as Israel was – to prove whether he would be the one human being to submit fully to the will of God, or whether he too would succumb to the universal human tendency to follow his own will. Would he be like the first Adam and turn away from God, or would he follow his vocation to be the Second Adam, the firstborn of a family of sons and daughters who would turn back to God?

A lot is at stake in this desert.

And a lot is at stake when we find ourselves in the desert with Jesus during Lent, for the same question is posed to us: Will we turn away and follow Adam, or will we turn to God and follow Jesus?

In the early Church Lent was the time set aside for the preparation of new believers before they were baptized at the Great Vigil of Easter. Prayer, fasting, giving, studying the Scriptures and Creed, fighting the temptations of the devil – these were preparations for the day when they would stand before the whole church and promise to follow Jesus forever. And today, we take up these very same disciplines as we journey toward Confirmation.

For Jesus, too, this forty-day experience of fasting and prayer in the desert was a time of preparation – a time to be strengthened for the ministry that lay before him.

In the desert Jesus was tempted to turn stone into bread, to seek comfort rather than God's will. He rebuked the devil with words of Scripture: "It is written: 'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" He was tempted to seek safety rather than follow God's path to the cross. Again he responded with Scripture: "Do not put the Lord your God to the test." He was tempted to seize worldly power rather than laying down his own life, if only he would worship the devil. His response? Scripture again: "Worship the Lord your God and serve only Him."

Jesus' response in those forty days showed that he was ready to take up the cross, the instrument of salvation, and to give his life to offer us the free gift of life.

If our Lent is a participation in Jesus' forty days in the wilderness, what does that mean for us? Simply that Lent is a challenge to us to take up our cross, to do God's will rather than our own, to live by the bread of his words more than we live by food and drink. And this challenge of Lent is exactly the challenge of the Baptismal Covenant – the challenge that we claim for our own when we kneel before the Bishop at Confirmation. So this Lent, as we prepare for the Great Vigil, let us remember that nothing matters more than following the way of Jesus, because his way alone leads to the glory of the Resurrection.

Bible Study
Experiencing God's Word
Begins Monday, March 26

This 4 week class will offer a unique approach to Bible Study for adults. It will include parables, prophecy, infancy narratives, resurrection stories and liturgy. A variety of lessons from the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program will be used as starting points for adult reflection and conversation. The class will be led by the Reverend Canon Gene Manning, Chris Hansen, Beverly Sanders and Becky Rochford. Classes will meet on Monday, March 26, April 2, April 16 and April 23 at 11 a.m. Childcare is provided.

Reminders:

Please bring bells for our Easter Vigil
Celebration on April 7 at 7:00 p.m.

The Southern Baptist Convention Parking
Garage (located next to the Annex building) will NOT be available for parking for The Great Vigil of Easter or on Easter Sunday.

Volunteers Needed for the Palm Sunday Event

HELP WANTED: Calling all bakers, crafters, actors, narrators, procession helpers and palm cross makers! We need a large group of volunteers, youth and adults, to help create the PALM SUNDAY EVENT. This event will begin with a procession by the children at the 8:30 a.m. service. Following the service, between 9:45 a.m. and 10:45 a.m., there will be the Prayer Walk of the Passion which draws attention to the various events of Holy Week; a craft area for families and a festive reception in Cheek Hall. The event will take place on Palm Sunday, April 1. We need your help to make this event come alive. Please contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org to volunteer or for more information.

Prepare ye the way of the Lord
Palm Sunday, April 1

Come make the events of the Passion come alive. During the 8:30 a.m. liturgy, children are invited to participate in the Palm Sunday Procession. Following that liturgy, from 9:45-10:45 a.m., everyone is invited to the Palm Sunday Event. Join in the "Prayer Walk of the Passion," remembering Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem and experiencing the events preceding His crucifixion and resurrection.

Baptism
Saturday, April 7, 2012

The next opportunity for baptism will be Saturday, April 7, 7 p.m. at the Great Vigil of Easter. If you or your child would like to be baptized, please contact the Reverend Canon Gene Manning at 615.255.7729 or gmanning@christcathedral.org by Monday, April 2. Baptism rehearsal will be Saturday, April 7 at 9 a.m.

General

Meetings

In order to honor the solemnity of Holy Week, the Dean has asked that all administrative meetings of the Cathedral be rescheduled for other times during the month of April. This announcement is inclusive of all staff, Vestry, Cluster, and committee meetings of the Cathedral.

Confession

Throughout Lent and Holy Week, priests of the Cathedral will be available by appointment (and on Thursdays in the Chapel from 11 a.m.-12 noon) for those seeking to make a Confession according to the form Reconciliation of a Penitent as listed on page 447 of the Book of Common Prayer, 1979. Also, during Holy Week, a priest will sit inside the altar rail in the Cathedral Chapel between 11 a.m. and 12 p.m., Monday through Wednesday, for those who wish to make unscheduled Holy Week confessions.

Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday Passion Walk Parishioners of all ages are invited to join in the Palm Sunday Passion Walk during the Sunday school hour. Each stop along the walk features a different Holy Week event.

Maundy Thursday

A Vigil with the Blessed Sacrament—an ancient tradition continues at Christ Church Cathedral. Good Friday is the one day in the Church Year when the Holy Eucharist is not celebrated, as the Church mourns the death of the Messiah. But so as not to be denied the benefits of his passion in the Sacrament, the tradition arose wherein the faithful kept vigil with the consecrated Bread and Wine from Maundy Thursday night until the time of its distribution on Good Friday (Mass of the Pre-Sanctified, see the Book of Common Prayer, 1979, p. 282).

In order to facilitate this Vigil, the Cathedral Chapel will be prepared with an Altar of Repose (for the Reserved Sacrament) following the Stripping of the Altar on Maundy Thursday.

In mid March, a sign-up list will be posted in the Parish Hall asking parishioners to sign up for a one-hour vigil sometime during the night. Three people will be asked to keep vigil at each hour. Volunteers at the Receptionist's desk will let those in who come during the night for prayer. Silence is kept throughout the vigil. Candles may be lit at the close of one's time of prayer. Devotional resources for the hour will be made available in the Chapel, though the classical practices of Centering and Contemplative prayer are frequently employed by those keeping vigil.

Good Friday

The Good Liturgy

This year's Good Friday Liturgy will be offered at 12 noon only, so as to have the Cathedral's gathering conform more closely to the historical hour of the crucifixion. The liturgy will include the Liturgy of the Word, Sermon, the Solemn Collects, the Veneration of the Cross, the Reproaches, and Communion from the Reserved Sacrament.

Holy Saturday

The Great Vigil of Easter

Note: This year's Easter Vigil begins at 7 p. m. Bishop Bauerschmidt will celebrate and preach.

Easter Day

Flowering of the Cross—On Easter morning a large wooden cross suitable for "flowering" will be placed at the top of the stairs by the handicapped access ramp exit to the side parking lot door. Bring flowers with you when you come to worship on Easter Day—something local, something from your garden—and place them in the cross. Whether before you worship or after (7 a.m., 8:30 a.m., or 11 a.m.) stop by and watch the cross grow flush with the colors of Christ's Resurrection!

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

Easter Flowers: If you wish to give a gift of flowers in the chancel at Easter in honor of, or in memory of friends or family, please send your check marked "Easter Flowers" to the attention of Peggy Tucker at the Cathedral. Enclose a note indicating for whom the gift is given, as well as the name of the individual(s) giving the gift. Deadline for inclusion in the Easter liturgy leaflet is Noon, Monday, March 19.

Easter Music: If you would like to give a gift of music at Easter in honor of, or in memory of friends or family, please send your check marked "Easter Music" to the attention of Michael Velting at the Cathedral. Enclose a note indicating for whom the gift is given, as well as the name of the individual(s) giving the gift. Deadline for inclusion in the Easter liturgy leaflet is Noon, Monday, March 19.

Collection for Liberia: The Global Missions Committee is asking parishioners to bring contributions for a shipment to Liberia organized by our former sabbatical priest Fr. James Yarsiah. Books, school and office supplies, clothing, blankets, and dry food items will help the needy. Bring your donations to the church beginning March 5 through March 31. Bins are located in Cheek Hall for your items. For more information please contact Ann or Gerry Calhoun, gercalhoun@aol.com.

Chair Yoga Class Re-scheduled: The Chair Yoga class, led by Jim Vickers, is being re-scheduled to a new time. The new class time will be 1-2 p.m. on Wednesdays, in the Annex building, beginning March 7. Everyone is invited to try a first class free of charge. There is a suggested $8 fee for the class. Jim's Chair Yoga method is an accessible means of practicing Yoga without needing to sit on the floor. A chair is used for both standing and seated poses. The class is suitable for beginners and those with experience, and a wide variety of ages and levels of ability. For more information, contact Jim at 615.321.8997 or at Yoganashville@aol.com

Daughters of the King: Daughters of the King will meet on March 11 (second Sunday of the month), at 8 a.m. on the second floor in Becky Rochford's office.

Cathedral Flowers: The beautiful flowers you see in the Cathedral every Sunday are placed to the glory of God and often in thanksgiving and memory of a loved one. They also express the generosity of those who contribute to our Flower Fund. Cost: $150. To give flowers on an upcoming Sunday, contact Peggy Tucker in the Cathedral office at ptucker@christcathedral.org or 615.255.7729.

Cathedral Men's Breakfast: The Men's Breakfast will be held on Tuesday, March 20 at 7 a.m. Cost is $5. Please RSVP by calling Marti Lawson, 615.255.7729 or online at christcathedral.org. Deadline is Sunday, March 18.

The Cathedral Book Club: The Cathedral Book Club will meet Thursday, March 15, 7 p.m., at the home of Dede Clements, 232 Cherokee Station Drive. The book for discussion will be On Canaan's Side by Sebastian Barry. All interested persons are welcome.

Bones for Life: The Bones for Life program led by Katherine Correa will continue on Thursdays from 11 a.m.-12 p.m. in the Cathedral Annex. The first class is free, additional classes are $10 per session for regular attendees. Mats are provided, participants should wear comfortable clothing. For more information go to nashillemindandbody.com or contact Becky Rochford, brochford@christcathedral.org
