2013 Christ Church Cathedral Every Member Canvass

"...By word and example..."

"Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?" At least four times a year (at the Baptism of our Lord, the Great Vigil of Easter, the Day of Pentecost, and the Sunday after All Saints' Day), although frequently more at Christ Church Cathedral, we are asked this question by the celebrant whenever adults, children, or infants are presented for baptism. Proclaiming the Gospel by word and example is part of the Christian's DNA, infused as it were by the Spirit on the day we were made members of the household of God. We commit in the baptismal liturgy to mani-
'walk' with our faith 'talk.'

Somehow, though, the call rarely influences the year the Christ Church working in close association phrase "...by word and 2013 Every Member In doing so, we have the Cathedral into an Canvass is so much "raise funds" for the call to give, to pledge, to bake sales, car washes, which have their place institutional need.

Instead, the fall Canvass asks you to consider honoring God and the proclamation of the Good News in the management of your finances. Let your love of God and your passion for Christ Church Cathedral be reflected in the offering of your first fruits to God. I hope that many will strive to tithe, following the teaching of the Church's General Convention and in setting aside 10% of your household resources to support the work of the Kingdom, whether through or beyond the church. The discipline of giving, the discipline of sharing, directly, logically, theologically, and spiritually follows from the foundational baptismal covenant.

The commitment to give and the commitment to proclaim presuppose one's love of God and the love of neighbor. It presupposes and expresses gratitude for the sacrifice Christ made for us. Imagine and declare your pledge commitment this year as proclamation of the Good News, by word and example. It is what the world needs to hear and what will remake your heart after the heart of God.

This Cathedral Stewardship Committee, with my office, has selected the example..." as the theme for our Canvass. invited the members and friends of extraordinary adventure. The fall more than another mechanism to 2013 operating budget. The annual commit is to be distinguished from and capital campaigns, all of but typically seek to meet an

PASTORAL CARE

HOSPITAL ADMISSIONS

Please contact the clergy directly or Peggy Tucker in the church office at 615.255.7729 whenever you or a loved one are admitted to the hospital. The clergy would like to visit and offer prayers. The hospital admission clerk may ask specific questions about your religious preference, your denomination and your church, but they will not notify the Cathedral to let us know you are there. Governmental regulations (HIPAA) prohibit release of health information to third parties so we must rely upon you to let us know to which hospital you or a member of the parish has been admitted.

ON CALL

A member of the clergy is always on call for any emergency that may arise. Please call the church office at 615.255.7729 and a member of the clergy will be in touch with you.

ARE YOU EXPECTING A CHILD?

The birth or adoption of a child is an amazing time in the life of a family and in the life of a parish. We want to know when your family is expecting/adopting a child so that members of the clergy can reach out to you. Please contact The Reverend Canon Gene Manning at 615.255.7729 so that we can welcome your new baby into the community.

PRAYER LISTS

There are two different prayer lists at the Cathedral: the Sunday prayer list and the weekday Chapel prayer list. You may add names to one or both lists at any time if the person you wish to add has given you permission to do so. Please contact a member of the clergy or Peggy Tucker at 615.255.7729 to submit a name to the lists. Those on the Sunday prayer list are prayed for during the Prayers of the People and the names are printed in the Sunday Order of Worship. Individuals on the weekday prayer list are prayed for at the 12:15 p.m. daily Eucharist.

Unless otherwise indicated, we will pray for each person three consecutive weeks. The person placing the name on the list must contact the church office 615.255.7729, if the name should remain on the list for an additional three weeks.

Eucharistic Visitor Ministry

We who are many are One Body, because we share one bread, one cup.

From time to time fellow parishioners are unable to attend the Sunday celebration of the Holy Eucharist due to illness, hospitalization or infirmity. Eucharistic Visitors are licensed and authorized by the Bishop to take the Consecrated Elements to such persons. In October we will begin sending Eucharistic Visitors from the Sunday liturgies to those who wish to receive the sacrament. Please contact The Reverend Canon Gene B. Manning gmanning@christcathedral.org or 615.255.7729 if you, your family member or a fellow parishioner desires such a visit. A visit by a Eucharistic Minister does not take the place of a pastoral call by one of the clergy.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Bible Challenge Readings for October

We are ready to begin! As we undertake this transforming discipline of reading the Word of God over the next year, there are a few things to consider.

- You are encouraged to read a portion of the Bible each day.
- We begin reading on October 1, but know that if you are unable to start that day you can jump in when you are ready.
- The readings for the month of October are listed below and can also be found on our website.
- Give yourself a full year to read the entire Bible. The Bible has a profound message, and you need to give yourself ample time to allow God's Word to penetrate your heart, mind and soul deeply.
- The following translations are suggested: The New Oxford Annotated Version, The New International Version, and the Common English Version. But there are many other fine translations you may wish to use.
- Many may want to read their Bible using their iPad, iPhone, Kindle or Nook or listen to the Bible on CD's.
- Beginning on Sunday October 7, and Wednesday October 10, we will have weekly gatherings to give us opportunity to reflect and discuss the readings. These gatherings are not required but are offered simply to enhance and support our experience together.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT THE CATHEDRAL

October 3, 10 and 17, 2012

MAKE A JOYFUL NOISE

For the next three weeks this series will feature a different songwriter each Wednesday night. Each will perform and talk about how his faith influences his songwriting.

October 3—Marcus Hummon

Marcus Hummon, has been called Nashville's Renaissance Man. He has enjoyed a successful career as a songwriter, recording artist, producer and studio musician, playwright and author. His songs have been recorded in Pop, R&B, gospel...and most notably in country music. His country discography reads like a "who's who" list of country notables over the last 15 years...Rascal Flatts, Garth Brooks, The Dixie Chicks, Brooks and Dunn, Tim McGraw, Wynonna, Sara Evans, Alabama, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Brian White, Leann Womack, Patty Loveless...to name a few.

October 10—Fred LaBour

Fred is a cradle Episcopalian who migrated from western Michigan to Nashville forty years ago. Known professionally as Too Slim, he's a founding member of the Grammy-winning western quartet Riders In The Sky, with which he has toured and recorded for 35 years. His songs have been recorded by Riders as well as the Mythical Trifecta—Tammy Wynette, William Shatner, and Don Rickles. He's written and collaborated on hundreds of radio, stage and TV shows, and is well known in small circles for his put-ons, japes, and zany antics, as well as poetry. He is a member of the Christ Church Cathedral community of faith.

October 17—Craig Wiseman

Craig is one of today's most celebrated songwriters and has played a significant role in shaping Country music. Craig has been named ASCAP's Songwriter of the Year in 2003, 2005 and 2007. In 2005, he won a Grammy for Best Country Song for Tim McGraw's 10 week #1, "Live Like You Were Dying." He also took home the CMA & ACM Song Of The Year awards for "Live Like You Were Dying" and in the following year for Brooks & Dunn's "Believe." Sacred Space for the City FALL SYMPOSIUM

The Role of the Laity:
From New Testament Times to the Episcopal Church Today

Featuring

The Reverend Dr. Benjamin J. King

What is the role of the laity in our churches? In the Catholic Church of the Victorian era, one English Monsignor notoriously answered: "To hunt, to shoot, to entertain. These matters they understand, but to meddle with ecclesiastical matters they have no right at all." In a study prepared for the recent General Convention, a different answer was given: "The Episcopal Church has historically embraced and legitimized laity, bishops and clergy equally to take their place in the governance of the church." Dr. Benjamin J. King's lectures will examine the various roles of the laity since New Testament times so that we might better understand what the role of the laity could be today.

Dr. King is Assistant Professor of Church History and Director of the Advanced Degrees Program at The University of the South School of Theology. He studied History and Theology at Cambridge University, received a Masters in Theology from Harvard Divinity School and a Ph.D. in Theology from Durham University in the United Kingdom. A winner of the 2011 John Templeton Award for Theological Promise, Dr. King's highly acclaimed book, Newman and the Alexandrian Fathers, examines the influence of the earliest Christian theologians on the most prominent 19th century Christian theologians.

VISITORS MINISTRY

While we have many visitors each Sunday, we have very little structure in place to greet, orient, and draw in the guests who come through our (sometimes imposing) doors. Central to our charge to be "friends who welcome the stranger," Christ Church is reinvigorating and improving our effort to welcome visitors to the Cathedral. Beginning Sunday, October 7, you will start noticing fellow parishioners before and after the 8:30 and 11:00 liturgies stationed outside the Church and the Nave to help in this effort. Take a moment to speak with them, thank them for their service, and introduce yourself to them. Likewise, if this is a ministry in which you feel called to participate, please contact the Reverend Joshua Caler, jcaler@christcathedral.org, for details.

THE NEXT NEWCOMERS GATHERING IS NOVEMBER 18

If you have begun attending Christ Church Cathedral in the last several months, are visiting for the first time, or are interested in learning more about life and ministry in this parish, please join us on Sunday, November 18, 2012 at 9:45 a.m. in the Wheeler Room for coffee and conversation. This will provide an opportunity to meet some of the clergy, to meet others who are new to the parish, and to learn more about this community.

COME AND MEET AMALIA SOLIZ

Sunday, October 14, 2012
9:45 a.m.

Parish Hall

Amalia is the first Amistad beneficiary ever to come to the United States. Come hear her story of redemption and growth in Christ through her 20 years of life at Amistad.

Amalia Soliz came to live at Amistad Mission when she was seven years old. Having previously survived an abusive home and overcrowded state orphanage, Amalia found refuge at Amistad, a loving community for God's vulnerable children in Bolivia. Amalia is Amistad's most recent graduate from university, with a degree in psychology. She is an amazing young woman who has developed her own non-profit organization in Bolivia for children who seek family reunification. Amalia hopes to begin her master's degree in business administration early next year. She currently holds a managerial position at a local coffee shop in Cochabamba.

Friends of Amistad are also invited to meet Amalia on Sunday evening, October 14, from 6 to 8 p.m., at a reception hosted by Walker and Renee Mathews. The reception will take place at the home of Lise and Lindsay Bohannon at 201 Clarendon Avenue (on the corner of Clarendon and Sutherland Avenues, front entrance on Sutherland). WE ARE HOME Nashville Rebuilding Assistance Program

It has been more than two years since the May 2010 flood hit Nashville, and hundreds of people have been helped by many caring organizations. YOUTH HAPPENINGS

The Scripture teaches us that the Christian community is a Body, called to grow together “into the full stature of Christ,” with every member contributing something toward that common goal. In youth ministry this is especially important; whether it's a mom or dad driving a minivan filled with eighth-graders, a Confirmation sponsor sharing wisdom with a younger person, or a high-school senior preaching in the Assembly, we all have a part to play in this mission of nurturing young disciples.

This month we begin a series of reflections from various members of the congregation who share their experiences of youth ministry at the Cathedral, with the hope that these stories will draw attention to the way each of us can build up the body of Christ. Our first reflection comes from Trone and Catherine Sawyer, who serve as Sunday school teachers, youth basketball coaches and Bible study leaders (and are soon to be new parents!) This month Catherine reflects on their experiences with informal small group ministry.

We began attending Christ Church about five years ago. Trone immediately became quite involved with the youth group. After changes to Wednesday night programming, some kids still wanted to get together. Trone began to go to dinner weekly with three sophomore boys. They would meet at a local restaurant and chat for an hour. Topics ranged from politics to theology to asking a girl on a date. Three years later, the boys were seniors and the weekly dinners were still going strong. At that point, I had also become involved in the youth group, teaching Sunday School and helping coach the Lampshadez (girls' basketball powerhouse team). At the beginning of the spring semester, I made an announcement in Sunday School that I would like to start a girls' Bible study. Four girls took the bait, and we have been meeting weekly ever since. To date, we have read through two books of the Bible and are beginning Paul's letters this fall.

This casual ministry has been a tremendous blessing to both of us. An added bonus has been that we have not only gotten to know these young people but have also gotten to know their wonderful parents. It has been a very easy way to be involved and has reaped many benefits. Getting involved with youth ministry can mean knowing the names of every young person who walks through the doors, but it can also mean really getting to know just a few. We are thankful for the relationships we have formed in this casual, small-group format.

purchase at the door or ticketsnashville.com

The 2012-2013 Sacred Space for the City Arts Series kicks off this month with a three-night run of Stand, a play by Nashville playwright and Music Row audio producer Jim Reyland. The performances will take place October 18-20 at 7:30 p.m. in Cheek Hall.

Based on the true story of the friendship that developed between Reyland and J.J. Ellis, a homeless man with a history of addiction and mental illness, Stand has only two characters, Johnny and Mark, played by veteran actors Barry Scott and Chip Arnold. As Arnold said in an interview with the Nashville Scene,

“This is a combination of art and real life, in the sense that you are exposing a problem that’s very real and chronic all across the country. But mainly this is a buddy story about two people who come from different places of brokenness and learn to love and respect and care for each other.”

Reyland has been a volunteer for Room In The Inn and the Campus for Human Development for more than 25 years. A portion of the proceeds from Stand, which is scheduled for 36 performances in 14 venues across Middle Tennessee, will go to Room In The Inn to help

Nashville’s homeless population. Reyland hopes his play will not only move audiences but also put a face on homelessness. As he told the Scene, “I’ve been asked why I spend time with people who are at the end of their lives instead of with people who are at the beginning of their lives...I just felt that these were the folks at the very bottom of the rung, and it seemed like they needed the most help...It’s a very powerful thing that happens emotionally, with the possibility that you can make a difference.”

Cathedral Foyer Groups Are Forming

Small groups are vital to the life of a congregation as large and diverse as Christ Church Cathedral. Foyer groups provide an opportunity for parishioners to get to know each other and learn about parish life by gathering to talk and share a meal in friendship. Made up of 8 to 10 members of the Cathedral who have expressed an interest in getting to know their fellow parishioners better, the groups meet casually once a month, November through May.

The format and time of the meetings are determined by each group. Fellowship in the Cathedral is strengthened by the ties we form among ourselves. Foyer groups bring together a cross-section of parishioners that includes old, young, single, married, new members, and long-time members of our community. By getting to know people within our Cathedral family better, our lives together in Christ are enriched.

If you are interested in joining a foyer group, please fill out the form on the Cathedral website at christcathedral.org/InOurChurch/FoyerGroups. You will be assigned to a group and will receive a list of all group members and the group leader. The group leader will then contact you. For more information, please contact Rees Mitchell at rees.mitchell@comcast.net
