There will probably be other members of the parish coming home whose plans we do not know, whom we will be very happy to see.

We wish you every joy this glad Christmas tide. That joy is fullest, when we have not only happy fellowship with one another, but also thankful communion with our Saviour and Lord. As we kneel at His table, may we all know His living presence in our hearts.

“How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek soul'd will receive Him, still
The dear Christ enters in.

O holy Child of Bethlehem!
Descend on us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel! Amen.”

Faithfully and affectionately yours,

E. P. DANDRIDGE
