A Penitential Order: Rite II

While the country remains at war, we begin our worship with the Penitential Order.

HYMN 522 – Glorious things of thee are spoken Austria

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 351)

THE DECALOGUE (BCP, p. 350)

CONFESSION OF SIN (BCP, p. 352)

GLORIA S 278 Missae Brevis William Mathias

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, because without you we are not able to please you, mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord GOD who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

PSALM 116:1-8

Mode 2

1. I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever
I called upon him.
2. The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
3. Then I called upon the Name of the LORD: *
“O LORD, I pray you, save my life.” Refrain
4. Gracious is the LORD and righteous; *
our God is full of compassion.
5. The LORD watches over the innocent; *
I was brought very low, and he helped me. Refrain
6. Turn again to your rest, O my soul, *
for the LORD has treated you well.

7. For you have rescued my life from death, *
my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
8. I will walk in the presence of the LORD *
in the land of the living. Refrain

NEW TESTAMENT READING – James 3:1-12

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

HYMN 409 – The spacious firmament on high

Creation

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 8:27-38

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, ‘Who do people say that I am?’ And they answered him, ‘John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.’ He asked them, ‘But who do you say that I am?’ Peter answered him, ‘You are the Messiah.’ And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him. Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, ‘Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.’ He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, ‘If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.’

ALLELUIA VERSE

*I will bless the Lord at all times;
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.*

Join the Bible Challenge

Have you ever wanted to read the Bible cover to cover but stopped short? Please join the clergy and fellow parishioners as we commit to read the Bible in the coming year. The Center for Biblical Studies has developed a one-year reading schedule to help us with this challenge. We will begin on October 1. Participants are encouraged to find a 20-30 minute period each day to commit to this prayerful reading. The schedule will be listed each week on the Cathedral website, in Happenings, and in the Order of Worship. In addition, the clergy will facilitate conversation and reflection upon the readings on Wednesdays at 11 a.m. and on Sundays at 9:45 a.m. If you are interested in participating in the Bible Challenge, please sign up at the receptionist's desk or contact the Reverend Canon Gene B. Manning at gmmanning@christcathedral.org.

Diocesan Youth Eucharist and Dinner, Sunday, September 23, 5-7 p.m. Join with youth from all over the diocese in an instructed Eucharist led by Bishop Bauerschmidt. Each parish represented will lead some portion of the liturgy (our youth will be ushers!). Following the liturgy we will eat dinner together in Cheek Hall. Suggested donation for the dinner is $5. Please RSVP to youth@christcathedral.org.

Newcomers Gathering: If you have begun attending Christ Church Cathedral in the last several months, are visiting for the first time, or are interested in learning more about life and ministry in this parish, please join us next Sunday, September 23, at 9:45 a.m. in the Wheeler Room for coffee and conversation. This will provide an opportunity to meet some of the clergy, to meet others who are new to the parish, and to learn more about this community.

The Cathedral Book Club: The Cathedral Book Club will meet Thursday, September 27, 7 p.m., at the Cathedral. The book for discussion will be Wild by Cheryl Strayed. The selection for October will be Gone Girl by Gillian Flynn. All interested persons are welcome.

The Cathedral Youth Acolyte Program Informational Meeting, September 30: Calling All 5th-6th Graders! Would you like to be a part of the Sunday Liturgy at Christ Church Cathedral? Becoming an acolyte is a most meaningful way to serve your church. This is a great way to participate and volunteer on Sunday mornings, and it need not interfere with your busy school week. New acolytes train 30 minutes prior to their first Liturgy and are generally scheduled 2-3 times per 3-month rotation. An informational meeting will be held on September 30 at 9:45 a.m. in the 6th grade atrium in the Cathedral Annex Building. If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Karmine Quiggle at quigkw@bellsouth.net.
