COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – Numbers 11:4-6, 10-16, 24-29

The rabble among them had a strong craving; and the Israelites also wept again, and said, 'If only we had meat to eat! We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic; but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at.' Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the LORD became very angry, and Moses was displeased. So Moses said to the LORD, 'Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me? Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, "Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a sucking child", to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors? Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me and say, "Give us meat to eat!" I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me. If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once—if I have found favor in your sight—and do not let me see my misery.' So the LORD said to Moses, 'Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you. So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again. Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, 'My lord Moses, stop them!' But Moses said to him, 'Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit on them!'

Chanted by the Choir, using the Coverdale version of the Psalm

The law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul;
 the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.
 The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart;
 the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.
 The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever;
 the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.
 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold;
 sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.
 Moreover, by them is thy servant taught,
 and in keeping of them there is great reward.
 Who can tell how oft he offendeth? O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.
 Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me;
 so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.
 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be always acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

NEW TESTAMENT READING – James 5:13-20

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up, and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest. My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that whoever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

HYMN 635 – If thou but trust in God to guide thee

Wer nur den lieben Gott

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 9:38-50

John said to him, 'Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us.' But Jesus said, 'Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterwards to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward. 'If any of you put a stumbling-block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched. 'For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.'

ANTHEM

Blessed are those that be undefiled

Thomas Tallis
(c 1505-1585)

Blessed are those that be undefiled in the way and walk in the law of the Lord.
Blessed are they that keep his testimonies and seek him with their whole heart.
For they who do no wickedness
walk in his ways.

Thou hast charged us, O Lord,
that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.
O that our ways were made so direct that we might keep thy statutes.
So shall we not be confounded
while we have respect unto all thy commandments.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

The pilgrimage will be led by the Reverend Joshua M. Caler and Dr. Daniel Shafer, Professor of History at Belmont University and a member of the Cathedral Vestry. If you are interested in making this pilgrimage, please plan to attend a meeting today, at 9:45 a.m. in the Wheeler Room. If you cannot attend the meeting, please contact the Reverend Joshua M. ## THE BIBLE CHALLENGE

We are ready to begin! As we undertake this transforming discipline of reading the Word of God over the next year there are a few things to consider.

- ♦ You are encouraged to read a portion of the Bible each day.
- ♦ We begin reading on October 1st but know that if you are unable to start that day you can jump in when you are ready.
- ♦ The readings for each week, Monday through Saturday, can be found on the Cathedral website, the Sunday Order of Worship and the Cornerstone.
- ♦ Give yourself a full year to read the entire Bible. The Bible has a profound message, and you need to give yourself ample time to allow God's Word to penetrate your heart, mind and soul deeply.
- ♦ The following translations are suggested: The New Oxford Annotated Version, The New International Version, and the Common English Version. But there are many other fine translations you may wish to use.
- ♦ Many may want to read their Bible using their iPad, iPhone, Kindle or Nook or listen to the Bible on CD's.
