CONFESSION OF SIN (BCP, p. 352)

GLORIA S 280    Robert Powell

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING – Genesis 2:18-24

Then the LORD God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.' So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken.' Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

PSALM 8    Mode 7

2. Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
3. You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, * to quell the enemy and the avenger. Refrain
4. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
5. What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out? Refrain
6. You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor; Refrain

7. You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:
8. All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
9. The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea. Refrain

NEW TESTAMENT READING – Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere, 'What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them? You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honor, subjecting all things under their feet.' Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, 'I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.'

HYMN 480 – When Jesus left his Father's throne

Kingsfold

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 10:2-16

Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?' He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' They said, 'Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.' But Jesus said to them, 'Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, "God made them male and female." "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.' Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, 'Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.' People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

ALLELUIA VERSE

his praise shall ever be in my mouth.*

Day 13 – Genesis 34-36; Psalm 12; Matthew 12
Day 14 – Enjoy hearing the Scriptures read aloud in church

VISITORS MINISTRY

While we have many visitors each Sunday, we have very little structure in place to greet, orient, and draw in the guests who come through our (sometimes imposing) doors. Central to our charge to be "friends who welcome the stranger," Christ Church is reinvigorating and improving our effort to welcome visitors to the Cathedral. Beginning today, you will start noticing fellow parishioners before and after the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. liturgies stationed outside the Church and the Nave to help in this effort. Take a moment to speak with them, thank them for their service, and introduce yourself to them. Likewise, if this is a ministry in which you feel called to participate, please contact the Reverend Joshua Caler, jcaler@christcathedral.org, for details.

Wednesday Evenings at the Cathedral October 10, and 17

MAKE A JOYFUL NOISE!

For the next two weeks this series features a different songwriter each Wednesday night. Each will perform and talk about how his faith influences his songwriting.

The featured performer for October 10 is Fred LaBour. Fred is a cradle Episcopalian who migrated from western Michigan to Nashville forty years ago. Known professionally as Too Slim, he's a founding member of the Grammy-winning western quartet Riders In The Sky, with which he has toured and recorded for 35 years. His songs have been recorded by Riders as well as the Mythical Trifecta Tammy Wynette, William Shatner, and Don Rickles. He's written and collaborated on hundreds of radio, stage and TV shows, and is well known in small circles for his put-ons, japes, and zany antics, as well as poetry. He is a member of the Christ Church Cathedral community of faith.

Fred will perform from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. Cost of the dinner is $5 for adults and $3 for children. Childcare is provided. Please call Marti Lawson at 615.255.7729 for dinner reservations.

Dinner reservations are required by 4 p.m. on Monday each week.

COME AND MEET AMALIA SOLIZ

Sunday, October 14, 2012
9:45 a.m.

Amalia is the first Amistad beneficiary ever to come to the United States. Come hear her story of redemption and growth in Christ through her 20 years of life at Amistad.

Amalia Soliz came to live at Amistad Mission when she was seven years old. Having previously survived an abusive home and overcrowded state orphanage, Amalia found refuge at Amistad, a loving community for God's vulnerable children in Bolivia. Amalia is Amistad's most recent graduate from university, with a degree in psychology. She is an amazing young woman who has developed her own non-profit organization in Bolivia for children who seek family reunification. Amalia hopes to begin her master's degree in business administration early next year. She currently holds a managerial position at a local coffee shop in Cochabamba.

Friends of Amistad are also invited to meet Amalia on Sunday evening, October 14, from 6 to 8 p.m., at a reception hosted by Walker and Renee Mathews. The reception will take place at the home of Lise and Lindsay Bohannon at 201 Clarendon Avenue (on the corner of Clarendon and Sutherland Avenues, front entrance on Sutherland).
