Bring someone you love to this celebration of spiritual friendship and love. St. Aelred was a 12th century English Cistercian monk, who became abbot of the Rievaulx Abbey in 1147. A writer of remarkable spiritual depth, he wrote that just as there is a continuous dialogue and interchange of love between the three persons of the Trinity, so human beings are called to relationships based on mutual dialogue, exchange, sharing and self-giving. Learning to love through intimate relationships teaches us something of who God is, how God loves us, and how we should strive to love God--a way to a deeper and more intimate love of God.
