COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, who before the passion of your only-begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING - Exodus 34:29-35

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand. Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterwards all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

PSALM 99

The LORD is King;
let the people tremble; *
he is enthroned upon the cherubim;
let the earth shake.

- The LORD is great in Zion: * 2. he is high above all peoples.
- 3. Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; * he is the Holy One.
- 4. "O mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; * you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."
- 5. Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God and fall down before his footstool; * he is the Holy One.
- 6. Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, * they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.
- He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; * 7. they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.
- 8. "O LORD our God, you answered them indeed; * you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds."

Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God 9. and worship him upon his holy hill; * for the LORD our God is the Holy One.

NEW TESTAMENT READING - 2 Corinthians 3:12-4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit. Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

THE GOSPEL LESSON - Luke 9:28-36

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

VOLUNTARY

Congratulations to our Junior Choristers: This morning we celebrate the achievement of many of our Cathedral Junior Choristers. All of our new Junior Choristers (those who have been wearing their purple cassocks without the white surplice) have made very good progress in the Royal School of Church Music curriculum and have completed their Level I Cards, earning their surplices. This is a very important moment in the life of a Cathedral Chorister and we are very proud of all of them. Those having earned their surplices are: Lena Grace Fuqua, Mason Hasty, Addison Meakin, Lucy Simmons and Zanol Simmons. We also celebrate the achievement of two Junior Choristers who have completed Level II in the Royal School of Church Music, earning their Chorister crosses: Virginia Fleming and Julia Sussman.

The Holy Communion

Singing Alleluia

Let us sing to God our praise, singing Alleluia. Now to him our voices raise, singing Alleluia. Praise to him who reigns above, praise to him who reigns in love. Let us sing to God our praise, singing Alleluia.

Christians come before your King, singing Alleluia. Joyous hearts to him we bring, singing Alleluia. All who to the Lord belong, now unite in joyous song. Christians come before your King, singing Alleluia.

Praise we sing, O Lord, to thee, singing Alleluia. Thou who made us strong and free, singing Alleluia. Praise to him who reigns above, praise to him who reigns in love, Join with us in song to God, singing Alleluia.

The Living Well (one of the agencies the Cathedral supports) recruits volunteers to teach birth parents of children in foster care better parenting skills with the hope of reuniting the family. Contact Jane Boram at bobjaneboram@clearwire.net for more information.

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Please complete a Visitor's Card (you will find one in the pew rack) and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. A church member will be happy to answer questions about Christ Church Cathedral and your opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about our parish. Thank you for visiting us today!

The Cathedral Welcomes

We welcome as our preacher this morning the Reverend Canon Peter Doll, who led the quiet retreat this week at St. Mary's for the clergy of the Diocese of Tennessee. Fr. Doll, a native of Washington, D.C., is a priest in the Church of England. He has ministered as a parish priest, university chaplain, and is now Canon Librarian of Norwich Cathedral. Educated at Yale and Oxford Universities, he is the author of works on church history, ecumenism, and liturgical spirituality. He will be our speaker for the Sunday Forum this morning at 9:45 a.m.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel are given to the glory of God and in memory of their mothers, Ruth Thackston and Josephine Colton Williams, who shared the same birthday, by Bettye Westermann and John O. Colton; and in gratitude for the life of Thomas Daugherty Rayson by his parents, Cary and Scott Rayson.
