HYMN 9 – Not here for high and holy things

Morning Song

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 355)

GLORIA S 280

Robert Powell

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON – Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the multitude, "Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified."

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

PSALM 116:1-3, 10-17

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever
I called upon him. | 13 Precious in the sight of the LORD *
is the death of his servants. |
| 2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow. | 14 O LORD, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds. |
| 3 Then I called upon the Name of the LORD: *
"O LORD, I pray you, save my life." | 15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the LORD. |
| 10 How shall I repay the LORD * for all the good things he has done for me? | 16 I will fulfill my vows to the LORD *
in the presence of all his people, |
| 11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the LORD. | 17 In the courts of the LORD's house, * in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah! |
| 12 I will fulfill my vows to the LORD *
in the presence of all his people. | |

THE SECOND LESSON – 1 Peter 1:1-2, 14-23

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who have been chosen and destined by God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with his blood:

May grace and peace be yours in abundance. Like obedient children, do not be conformed to the desires that you formerly had in ignorance. Instead, as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct; for it is written, 'You shall be holy, for I am holy.'

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 24:13-35

On the first day of the week, two of Jesus' followers were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. . But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Magdalen, cease from sobs and sighs

Peter Hurford
(b.1930)

Magdalen, cease from sobs and sighs;
wipe the teardrops from off thine eyes:
Simon the leper's feast is o'er;
Christ today needs thy nard no more.
Now thousand times mayest thou rejoice;
now thousand times uplift thy voice.
Alleluia, alleluia.

Magdalen, bind upon thee now
garland of gladness o'er thy brow:
banished afar is grief and pain:
welcome is sunshine after rain.
For Jesu Christ the world hath freed, triumphing over death indeed.
Alleluia, alleluia.

THE CATHEDRAL WELCOMES

Dr. Ellen F. Davis as our guest preacher today. Dr. Davis is Amos Ragan Kearns Distinguished Professor of Bible and Practical Theology at Duke University Divinity School.

And Dr. Norman Wirzba as our guest speaker for the Sunday Forum. Dr. Wirzba is Professor of Theology and Ecology at Duke University Divinity School.

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. A church member will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and your opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about our parish. Thank you for visiting us today!

FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel are given to the glory of God in loving memory of Nicholas Fleming Concepcion, by Janetta Fleming.

Cathedral Tours are available to parishioners and visitors following the closing organ voluntary on Sunday mornings. Please join a guide at the front of the Church near the lectern.

Announcements

“A GREATER REACH” YOUTH FUNDRAISER BEGINS TODAY

The Christ Church Cathedral Youth will begin a fundraiser today to raise money for youth missions, outreach, and other activities. Boards with 146 envelopes designated $1-$146 will be set up in the Wheeler Room and all you have to do is choose an envelope with the amount you wish to contribute.

Place a check in the envelope and leave it at the reception desk or mail it to the Cathedral Youth Department at 900 Broadway, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

Why 146 envelopes? It's a reference to Psalm 146, which praises God and speaks of lifting others up, both goals of the Cathedral Youth Ministry. Take an envelope and support the Cathedral Youth!

CHURCH IN THE YARD (CITY) TODAY: Every first Sunday of the month at 2 p.m., Christ Church Cathedral serves a meal to the hungry in the parish hall of Holy Trinity (615 6th Ave. S.). You are invited to come and assist us in this servant ministry. Ask for Stacey Nebel when you arrive or contact her at merundati13@yahoo.com for more information.

THE NEXT OPPORTUNITY FOR BAPTISM IS SUNDAY, JUNE 8,
THE DAY OF PENTECOST

Baptism will be celebrated at the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. Liturgies on Sunday, June 8. If you or your child would like to be baptized, please contact Dean Timothy Kimbrough at tkimbrough@christcathedral.org.

LANGUAGE TRANSLATORS NEEDED: SUNDAYS

From time to time, transient visitors who speak no English come to the Cathedral on Sunday mornings seeking help. To be of service to them, it would be desirable to have a list of parishioners who are proficient in any foreign language. If you have a language proficiency and would like to be listed, please contact Bill Coke at 615.665.1992 or wcoke1@bellsouth.net.

CATHEDRAL FLOWERS

The beautiful flowers you see in the Cathedral every Sunday are placed to the glory of God and often in thanksgiving or in memory of a loved one. They express the generosity of those who contribute to our Flower Fund. Cost: $150. To give flowers on an upcoming Sunday, contact Peggy Tucker in the Cathedral office at 615.255.7729 or ptucker@christcathedral.org.

CALLING ALL GREEN THUMBS!

If you enjoy digging, planting, watering, and (some) weeding, you are invited to participate in the Christ Church Cathedral Urban Garden Project.

The project will kick off on Saturday, May 10, at 9 a.m., when we will install several raised vegetable beds in the B parking lot. No expertise required—just enthusiasm! The goal of the project is to produce a modest amount of fresh produce to donate to community food ministries supported by the Cathedral, to provide an opportunity for religious education around creation care and the environment, and to investigate the viability of and interest in urban vegetable gardening at Christ Church. This project is made possible by a generous grant from the Environmental Ministry of Province IV of the Episcopal Church. Bring children or a friend and join us in celebrating the beauty of God's creation, the wonder of new growth emerging from the earth, and the joy of fellowship. For more information or to volunteer, contact the Reverend Joshua Caler at jcaler@christcathedral.org or Stacey Nebel at merundati13@yahoo.com.

For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes the things sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations. Isaiah 61:11
