CHORAL INTROIT *

Show us your mercy, O Lord

Peter R. Hallock
(1924-2014)

Show us your mercy, O Lord,
and grant us your salvation.
I will listen to what the Lord God is saying,
for he proclaims peace to his faithful people
and to those who turn their hearts to him.
Truly, his salvation is near to those who fear him,
that his glory may dwell in our land.

Psalm 85:7-9

The Word of God

HYMN 377 – All people that on earth do dwell

Old 100th

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 351)

GLORIA S 278

William Mathias

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON – Acts 2:42-47

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

PSALM 23 Coverdale version

chanted by the Choir

chant: Jeffrey Smith

The LORD is my shepherd;
therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture;
and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul;
and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me, against them that trouble me;
thou hast annointed my head with oil and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

THE SECOND LESSON – 1 Peter 2:19-25

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

“He committed no sin,
and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

HYMN 663 – The Lord my God my shepherd is

Crimond

THE GOSPEL LESSON – John 10:1-10

Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”

ALLELUIA VERSE

*I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and my sheep know me.*

John 10:14

ANTHEM

My shepherd will supply my need

David Koehring
(b. 1940)

My shepherd will supply my need;
Jehovah is his Name;
in pastures fresh he makes me feed,
beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back
when I forsake his ways,
and leads me for his mercy's sake
in paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death,
thy presence is my stay;
One word of thy supporting breath
drives all my fears away.
Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
doth still my table spread;
my cup with blessings overflows,
thy oil annoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God
attend me all my days;
O may thy house be my abode
and all my work be praise.
There would I find a settled rest,
while others go and come;
No more a stranger or a guest,
but like a child at home.

Students enroll for one year at a time, and complete the course in four years. More information is available on the EfM website, Sewanee.edu/EfM. The cost is $350/year. Partial scholarships may be available. Christ Church groups meet on Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings during the academic year and each has room for a limited number of new students. "A GREATER REACH" YOUTH FUNDRAISER CONTINUES

The Christ Church Cathedral Youth continues its fundraiser to raise money for youth missions, outreach, and other activities. Boards with 146 envelopes designated $1-$146 have been set up in the Wheeler Room and all you have to do is choose an envelope with the amount you wish to contribute.

Place a check in the envelope and leave it at the reception desk or mail it to the Cathedral Youth Department at 900 Broadway, Nashville, Tennessee 37203.

Why 146 envelopes? It's a reference to Psalm 146, which praises God and speaks of lifting others up, both goals of the Cathedral Youth Ministry. Take an envelope and support the Cathedral Youth!
