COLLECT OF THE DAY

O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Isaiah 55:10-13

As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it. For you shall go out in joy, and be led back in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come up the cypress; instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle; and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

PSALM 65:1-14

Mode 7

- | | | | |
|---|---|----|---|
| 1 | You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; *
to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem. | 8 | Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; *
you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy. Refrain |
| 2 | To you that hear prayer shall all flesh come, *
because of their transgressions. | 9 | You visit the earth and water it abundantly;
you make it very plenteous; *
the river of God is full of water. |
| 3 | Our sins are stronger than we are, *
but you will blot them out. Refrain | 10 | You prepare the grain, *
for so you provide for the earth. Refrain |
| 4 | Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your courts to dwell there! *
they will be satisfied by the beauty of your house,
by the holiness of your temple. | 11 | I You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; *
with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase. |
| 5 | Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness,
O God of our salvation, *
O Hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the seas that are far away. Refrain | 12 | You crown the year with your goodness, *
and your paths overflow with plenty. Refrain |
| 6 | You make fast the mountains by your power; *
they are girded about with might. | 13 | May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, *
and the hills be clothed with joy. |
| 7 | You still the roaring of the seas, *
the roaring of their waves,
and the clamor of the peoples. | 14 | May the meadows cover themselves with flocks,
and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; *
let them shout for joy and sing. Refrain |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Romans 8:1-11

There is no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and of death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do: by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and to deal with sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, so that the just requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. To set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. For this reason the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law-- indeed it cannot, and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

But you are not in the flesh; you are in the Spirit, since the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit that dwells in you.

HYMN 512 – Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove

Mendon

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Matthew 13:1-9, 18-23

Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. Such great crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat there, while the whole crowd stood on the beach. And he told them many things in parables, saying: “Listen! A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seeds fell on the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and they sprang up quickly, since they had no depth of soil. But when the sun rose, they were scorched; and since they had no root, they withered away. Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Other seeds fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Let anyone with ears listen!”

“Hear then the parable of the sower. When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what is sown in the heart; this is what was sown on the path. As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy; yet such a person has no root, but endures only for a while, and when trouble or persecution arises on account of the word, that person immediately falls away. As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the lure of wealth choke the word, and it yields nothing. But as for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty.”

ANTHEM

As panting deer desire the water-brooks

John Carter
(b. 1930)

As panting deer desire the water-brooks
when wandering in a dry and desert place,
so yearns my thirsty soul for you, O God,
and longs at last to see you face to face.

Both day and night my tears have been my food,
while scoffers taunt me, "Where is your God now?"
My soul dissolves as I recall the throng whose pilgrim hymns I led to Zion's brow.

Why are you heavy-hearted, O my soul?
And why are you so mired in deep discord?
Still put your hope and trust in God alone,
whom I will praise, my Savior and my Lord.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

Anthem

O God of gentle strength

Jane Manton Marshall
(b. 1924)

O God of gentle strength,
your love embraces me.
Within the sureness of your care
my heart rests willingly.

Your waters of rebirth
have claimed us as your own.
As members of one body,
we shall never be alone.

And when life's challenges
eclipse our minds with doubt,
let holy wisdom spark a flame
to drive the darkness out.

Where will the journey lead?
The path may be obscure.
But promised hope of things
unseen will keep our footing sure.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the chancel are given to the glory of God by Mary Gail Compton in loving memory of her father, Robert E. Frane.

WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. A church member will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and your opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about our parish. Thank you for visiting us today!

THE CATHEDRAL WELCOMES

The Reverend Dr. Robert MacSwain as our guest preacher today. Dr. MacSwain is the Assistant Professor of Theology and Christian Ethics at The School of Theology, Sewanee, The University of the South.

CATHEDRAL TOURS

Tours are available to parishioners and visitors following the closing organ voluntary on Sunday mornings. Please join a guide at the front of the Church near the lectern.

ALTAR GUILD

Would you like to join the Altar Guild? All persons, men or women, are welcome to join this group so vital to worship at the Cathedral. The Altar Guild prepares the oblations for worship services, weddings, funerals and other special liturgies, and tends to the vessels and sacristy. Opportunities are available on weekdays and on Sundays. To learn more, contact Suzanne Lee, suzanne@suzannelee.net.

THE NEXT DOOR

The Next Door, which provides Christ-centered, compassionate care for women impacted by addiction, mental illness, trauma and/or incarceration, is moving from its present site at 128 8th Avenue South to a new location on August 14. Its kitchen equipment was transferred to the new facility last week, so they are presently unable to cook any meals. Christ Church Cathedral has agreed to provide dinner for the residents on Saturday, July 19. Anna Masi is coordinating the purchase of prepared food and she needs 2-3 volunteers to assist her, from 4:30 pm to 6:30 pm, in setting out and serving the meal and cleaning up afterward. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Anna at annamasi01@gmail.com.

WEAPON-FREE

The Cathedral clergy and Vestry have declared the Cathedral to be a weapon-free place of worship, prayer, study, and fellowship, as a sign of Eucharistic peace. Please leave any weapons you are licensed to carry at home or in your car when you visit Christ Church Cathedral.

DO YOU HAVE AN ENVELOPE?

If you picked up a cream envelope during our 146 Envelopes: A Great Reach campaign, please return your envelope with your donation. We're counting on you as we still have $1500 in envelopes waiting to be returned! You may place it in the offering plate today or mail it to the church office. Please mark Youth in the memo line of your check. A big thanks to everyone who has already turned in your donation! We've raised over $3000 so far!

THE REV. JOSHUA M. CALER NAMED CANON FOR EVANGELISM AND PARISH LIFE

This past spring, noting that the Reverend Joshua M. Caler would complete the terms of his curacy at Christ Church Cathedral on June 1, 2014, and on the recommendation of Dean Kimbrough and Bishop Bauerschmidt, the Cathedral Chapter agreed to confer the title "Canon for Evangelism and Parish Life" on Fr. Caler for the duration of his tenure in ministry at the Cathedral. In this new capacity, he will continue to have responsibility for the following:

- Coordinating the ministry to and with Youth Adults
- Overseeing the work of newcomer contact and incorporation
- Serving as the clergy contact for the Cathedral's youth ministry
- Sharing in the pastoral care of the parish
- Sharing in the liturgical and educational responsibilities of a Cathedral staff priest

Additionally, Fr. Caler will now serve as clergy point person on the Commission for Evangelism and on the Commission for Parish Life. He will also be the clergy advisor to the Cathedral's Communications Department.

Bishop Bauerschmidt will formally confer this title on Fr. Caler at his visitation to Christ Church Cathedral in December.

Dean Kimbrough said, "By definition, a 'Curate' in the Episcopal Church almost invariably moves on to his next position within two to three years of graduation from seminary. Fr. Caler has enjoyed universal acclaim in ministry at the Cathedral and in his work in the Diocese of TN (Commission on Ministry, member; Diocesan Ecumenical Officer). This position and title both honor the work he has done among us for the sake of the Kingdom and set a new challenge before him."

HAVE YOU REMEMBERED CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL IN YOUR WILL?
