HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

The Word of God

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 323)

KYRIE ELEISON (BCP, p. 324)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, who art always more ready to hear than we to pray, and art wont to give more than either we desire or deserve: Pour down upon us the abundance of thy mercy, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask, but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord; who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Genesis 2:18-24

The LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner." So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said,

"This at last is bone of my bones
and flesh of my flesh;
this one shall be called Woman,
for out of Man this one was taken."

Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

PSALM 8

- | | | | |
|---|--|----|---|
| 1 | O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world! | 6 | You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor; |
| 2 | Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens. | 7 | You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet: |
| 3 | You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger. | 8 | All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field, |
| 4 | When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses, | 9 | The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea. |
| 5 | What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out? | 10 | O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world! |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:5-12

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere,

“What are human beings that you are mindful of them,
or mortals, that you care for them?
You have made them for a little while lower than the angels;
you have crowned them with glory and honor, subjecting all things under their feet.”

Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.”

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Mark 10:2-16

Some Pharisees came, and to test Jesus they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?” He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” They said, “Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.” But Jesus said to them, “Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, ‘God made them male and female.’ ‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

SEEING THE FACE OF GOD IN EACH OTHER: A CONVERSATION ON RACISM AND RECONCILIATION

Wednesdays, November 4, 11, 18
Dinner 5:30 p.m. and Program 6:00-7:00 p.m.

As Christians we are called to engage in honest dialogue and respectful conversation about racism and xenophobia, seek justice for all, and build the Beloved Community. During the month of November, the Cathedral will offer a three-week introduction to a year-long program focusing on antiracism. The series will continue in January with a book study of Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates and with the formation of small discussion groups. The program is designed to encourage us to explore ways of combatting racism not only in ourselves, but also in our church, our community, and in the world. We will analyze dynamics of power and oppression so that we can engage in the visioning of an alternative reality for the church and society.

Please plan to join in this very important conversation. For more information, please contact the Reverend Canon Gene B. Manning at gmanning@christcathedral.org, or Melinda Balser at melinda.balser@vanderbilt.edu.

Childcare provided. Dinner reservations required by 4 p.m. on Monday of each week. Call 615.255.7729.
