HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

The Word of God

OPENING ACCLAMATION (BCP, p. 323)

KYRIE ELEISON (BCP, p. 324)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

O Almighty God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord: Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys which thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love thee; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the LORD has spoken.

It will be said on that day,

Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

PSALM 24

- | | | | |
|---|---|----|--|
| 1 | The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, the world and all who dwell therein. | 7 | Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors;
and the King of glory shall come in. |
| 2 | For it is he who founded it upon the seas and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep. | 8 | "Who is this King of glory?"
"The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle." |
| 3 | "Who can ascend the hill of the LORD?
and who can stand in his holy place?" | 9 | Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors;
and the King of glory shall come in. |
| 4 | "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart,
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud. | 10 | "Who is he, this King of glory?"
"The LORD of hosts,
he is the King of glory." |
| 5 | They shall receive a blessing from the LORD and a just reward from the God of their salvation." | | |
| 6 | Such is the generation of those who seek him, of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob. | | |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Revelation 21:1-6a

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.

He will dwell with them as their God;

they will be his peoples,

and God himself will be with them;

he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more;

mourning and crying and pain will be no more,

for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

THE GOSPEL LESSON – John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

THE MARBLE CROSS

GIVEN TO THE GLORY OF GOD AND IN MEMORY OF REBECCA ALLISON PORTER.

On October 6, 1923, Bishop James M. Maxon dedicated the Marble Cross given in memory of their mother Rebecca Allison Porter by Misses Rebecca and Matilda Porter. The Porters' family home was on the corner of Spruce (8th Avenue South) and Demonbreun. The Carrara marble cross is adorned with Easter lilies symbolizing the Resurrection. A dedicatory plaque is below the cross. The cross was conserved, by Shelley Reisman Paine, in 2007, with a gift from David Graves and his wife Gloria Graves, granddaughter of Mrs. Porter. The Marble Cross is located on the east wall (right side) of the nave.

By Fletch Coke, Cathedral Archivist

HAVE YOU REMEMBERED CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL IN YOUR WILL?

THE CANVASS CHALLENGE

Christ Church Cathedral parishioners have a strong tendency to “identify” with the particular Liturgy they attend on Sunday mornings. While avoiding the temptation to profile the congregation at each Liturgy, the Dean and the 2016 Every Member Canvass committee have decided to issue a challenge to determine which congregation can generate the highest number of pledges. The amount pledged by each congregation will not be a factor, only the number of households participating in the 2016 Canvass. Attendees at the 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. Liturgies will face off against those who attend the 8:30 a.m. Liturgy.

If you have already pledged but did not indicate which Liturgy you attend, you may email parish accountant Angela Greek at agreek@christcathedral.org to request that your pledge be counted with those of “your” Liturgy.

If you have not yet pledged, please join your fellow parishioners in giving of your first fruits as a visible sign of thanksgiving and praise. The success of last year’s Canvass has allowed Christ Church to address some long-overdue projects but there is still much to be done. Every gift, large and small, contributes to the common good and the building up of the Kingdom of God at Christ Church Cathedral.

The quickest and easiest way to pledge is online at christcathedral.org/give. You may also send a check with your pledge card to the business office at the Cathedral. Pledge today!

PARISH SURVEY

The Vestry and clergy of Christ Church Cathedral are eager for everyone to become involved in parish life beyond attendance. We want to be a congregation that is responsive to the changing environment for ministry in Nashville, and a congregation known for its forward-looking and gospel-centered posture.

We are asking all parishioners to participate in sacrificial giving to the 2016 Every Member Canvass, and also to begin to dream with us about the future of Christ Church Cathedral.

This fall, we have embarked on a year-long strategic planning process for the Cathedral, with the goal of setting some 5- and 10-year goals for ministry at 9th and Broad. These goals should be few, concrete, and accompanied by program, staffing, membership, budget, and campus development/renewal implications.

As part of this process, we'd like to capture your dreams for this congregation. If you missed some of the visioning sessions we have been holding over several Sundays this fall, or if you did attend but have more you'd like to say, please take a few minutes to share your hopes and dreams for Christ Church Cathedral via an online survey. Thank you for taking the time to share your vision of what the Cathedral can become.

To participate in the survey, go to surveymonkey.com/r/HMC8PGS
