Cathedral Parish of the Diocese of Tennessee (Episcopal)

Proclaim. Seek. Serve.

To Visitors

Welcome! We are delighted that you have joined us for worship this morning. Page numbers refer to the Book of Common Prayer, which is the red book located in the rack on the back of the pew in front of you. The Hymnal is the blue book. Anyone sitting near you will be happy to answer questions about worship at Christ Church Cathedral and opportunities for fellowship, education, and servant ministry. Please complete a Visitor's Card and leave it with an usher or place it in the alms basin. You may also visit our website, christcathedral.org, to learn more about the Cathedral. Thank you for visiting!

HOLY EUCHARIST: RITE I

The Word of God

THE GREAT LITANY (BCP, p. 148)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, whose blessed Son was led by the Spirit to be tempted of Satan: Make speed to help thy servants who are assaulted by manifold temptations; and, as thou knowest their several infirmities, let each one find thee mighty to save; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Deuteronomy 26:1-11

When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me." You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

PSALM 91:2, 9-16

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, *
abides under the shadow of the Almighty. | 13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder; *
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent
under your feet. |
| 2 He shall say to the LORD,
"You are my refuge and my stronghold, *
my God in whom I put my trust." | 14 Because he is bound to me in love,
therefore will I deliver him; *
I will protect him, because he knows my Name. |
| 9 Because you have made the LORD your refuge, *
and the Most High your habitation, | 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; *
I am with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and bring him to honor. |
| 10 There shall no evil happen to you, *
neither shall any plague come near your dwelling. | 16 With long life will I satisfy him, *
and show him my salvation. |
| 11 For he shall give his angels charge over you, *
to keep you in all your ways. | |
| 12 They shall bear you in their hands, *
lest you dash your foot against a stone. | |

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Romans 10:8b-13

“The word is near you,
on your lips and in your heart”

that is, the word of faith that we proclaim; because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

THE GOSPEL LESSON – Luke 4:1-13

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.” Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone.’”

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, “To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” Jesus answered him, “It is written,

‘Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.’”

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you,’

and

‘On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’”

Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

GIFTS OF GRATITUDE—TEARS OF JOY

Imagine losing your home, your church, your school, and possibly even your family. What would you do? Haitians suffered these losses—and more— following the earthquake that devastated the country in 2010. Recovery is still ongoing ... and Episcopal Relief & Development (ERD) is on the scene. Beginning today and continuing through Lent, you can view a display in the Wheeler Room that shows how ERD is working with Haitians on clean water, hygiene, and sanitation projects; rebuilding homes, churches, and schools; and micro-financing for small businesses started by women and young farmers. Stop by the ERD DISPLAY before or after a Sunday Eucharist and learn more about how ERD is helping Haitians rebuild. During Lent 2016, the Commission for Outreach's Reconciliation Committee encourages you to support ERD's work in Haiti. You can help by picking up a "Hope Chest" — a small cardboard box (a mite box) in which your daily contribution could be placed, a gift representative of a new spiritual discipline or sacrifice you have made this Lent.

Additionally, the ERD 2016 Lenten Meditations book is available for you to pick up today. Whether doing "extra" spiritual work or "giving up" what is less needful, this book of meditation will be your companion in the journey to Easter morning.

There are also leaflets describing ERD's "Gifts for Life." Inspired by the challenge of the prophets and the death and resurrection of our Savior, let us give out of our abundance and support the people of Haiti. Weeping may spend the night, but joy comes in the morning.

For more information, visit the ERD display in the Wheeler Room each Sunday in Lent or e-mail Reconciliation Committee Chair Jane Boram at jane2302@att.net. Also, please visit the Episcopal Relief & Development website at episcopalrelief.org.

WEATHER ADVISORIES: When inclement weather strikes, please check the Cathedral website, christcathedral.org, for current notices about schedules at the Cathedral.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

LENTEN SERIES

SEEING THE FACE OF GOD IN EACH OTHER

February 17 through March 9

Dinner 5:30 p.m. and Program 6:00-7:30 p.m.

"A Conversation on Racism and Reconciliation" continues in the season of Lent on Wednesday evenings. The program is designed to encourage us to explore ways of combating racism not only in ourselves, but also in our church, our community and the world. We plan to commence the series with a discussion of the New York Times best-seller Between the World and Me by Ta-Nahesi Coates. Please bring a copy of the book with you. On Wednesday, March 2, we will have Vanderbilt PhD candidate in Theology, Jason Smith, speak to us on the topic of "New Jerusalem or New Plantation?: Christian Discipleship and College Football and Basketball." For more information, contact the Reverend Canon Gene B. Manning at gmmanning@christcathedral.org, or Melinda Balser at melinda.balser@vanderbilt.edu.

Childcare provided. Dinner reservations required by 4 p.m. on Monday of each week. Call 615.255.7729.

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL WOMEN'S RETREAT

February 26-28, 2016
Montgomery Bell State Park

All women of Christ Church Cathedral are invited and encouraged to attend the annual Women's Retreat at Montgomery Bell State Park. This weekend is a rare opportunity for the women of our congregation to come together in fellowship and friendship and to spend deliberate time thinking, praying, listening, and talking about our faith and lives. This year's theme is "Listening as a Spiritual Practice," led by our guest speaker, the Reverend Danielle Thompson, who will explore how being attentive to the voices of God, self, and others is a vital part of our spiritual life. We will engage topics such as discernment and decision-making, attention and distraction, and especially the art of receiving and telling stories. Whether your daily life is full of quiet or noise, and whether you prefer silence or sound, this retreat aims to help you listen well to the call that is happening all around us.
