COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST LESSON – Acts 17:22-31

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For 'In him we live and move and have our being'; as even some of your own poets have said,

'For we too are his offspring.'

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

- 7 O praise our God, ye people *
and make the voice of his praise to be heard;
- 8 Who holdeth our soul in life *
and suffereth not our feet to slip.
- 9 For thou, O God, hast proved us *
thou also hast tried us, like as silver is tried
- 10 Thou broughtest us into the snare *
and laidest trouble upon our loins.
- 11 Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads *
we went through fire and water,
and thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.
- 12 I will go into thine house with burnt-offerings *
and will pay thee my vows,
which I promised with my lips,
and spake with my mouth, when I was in trouble.
- 13 I will offer unto thee fat burnt-sacrifices,
with the incense of rams *
I will offer bullocks and goats.
- 14 O come hither, and hearken, all ye that fear God *
and I will tell you what he hath done for my soul.
- 15 I called unto him with my mouth *
and gave him praises with my tongue.
- 16 If I incline unto wickedness with mine heart *
the LORD will not hear me.
- 17 But God hath heard me *
and considered the voice of my prayer.
- 18 Praised be God who hath not cast out my prayer *
nor turned his mercy from me.

THE SECOND LESSON – 1 Peter 3:13-22

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil.

For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you—not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

HYMN 488 – Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart

THE GOSPEL LESSON – John 14:15-21

Jesus said, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

“I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

ALLELUIA VERSE

Those who love me will keep my word; and my Father will love them, and we will come to them.

ANTHEM

My master from a garden rose

Eleanor Daley
(b. 1955)

My Master in a garden lay,
perfumed with spices rare,
for tender hands had laid him there
to rest amid the roses.

'Twas on a cross they laid him bare,
and pierced His hands with nails,
that we poor men might live again
and be with Him in glory. Alleluia.

My Master from a garden rose
to go for us to heaven,
and he will come and take us there,
to be with him for ever. Alleluia, Amen.
