“WHAT DO YOU THINK?”

Your Strategic Plan Implementation Committee is finishing a season of discernment and feasibility study work with Bob Hotz and American City Bureau. The final component consists of a survey by which the parish will speak on the unfolding plans for a Christ Church Cathedral capital campaign.

You have two opportunities to access the survey: an online link <http://www.surveymonkey.com/r/CCCNashville> and a paper survey that you may pick up on the pew rack across from the receptionist’s desk today. All results will be tabulated by July 10.

If you haven’t completed your survey, please do so as soon as possible and remember to keep the parish leadership in your prayers.

PROCLAIM. SEEK. SERVE.

TOURS

Tours of the Nave are conducted after the closing organ voluntary at the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. Liturgies. Please join a guide near the lectern.

RIDE SHARING MINISTRY

The Commission for Pastoral Care is seeking volunteers willing to provide rides to and from Sunday worship for those among us who no longer drive and therefore are not able to be with us at the Altar. Providing rides for our seniors, for example, who otherwise would be absent from worship, is one of the many ways we in the Christ Church Cathedral community can live the Gospel, to Proclaim, Seek, and Serve. Please give this prayerful consideration. Email Debbie Webster at debramarie@bellsouth.net if this is something that is of interest to you.

CREATION FROM NOTHING: GOD'S LOVE MADE MANIFEST

THURSDAYS | 7:00-8:00 P.M. | WHEELER ROOM

Our seminarian intern for the summer, Erica Ridderman, is teaching a class on the doctrine of creation, a deeply historical (yet exciting!) Christian belief with wide-ranging implications. It has the power to shape our views of the world, God, ourselves, and the meaning of it all. In five sessions, we are discussing how God's creation from nothing relates to scripture, theology, and the current environmental crisis. It is a fun time of learning together. The study meets on Thursday evenings from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Wheeler Room, through August 3. For more information or questions, contact Erica at erica.ridderman@duke.edu

REGISTER NOW TO GROW IN KNOWLEDGE AND LOVE

THE CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD TRAINING

Are you ready to grow spiritually and theologically? Or have you discerned through prayer a need to serve the next generation of Christians? Both of these are valid reasons to participate in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd training. The link is on the Christian Formation page, brochures are in the rack by the receptionist's desk or you can contact Caroline at cbauerschmidt@christcathedral.org

If you are a parishioner of Christ Church Cathedral and want to take the course for your own spiritual and theological growth, the Cathedral is pleased to offer it at half the cost.

If you are a parishioner of Christ Church Cathedral and are teaching or would be committed to teaching in the coming year in an atrium, the Cathedral will be pleased to pay for your training in full.

Level II Training with Rachel Barden and Chris Hansen will be on Wednesday from 6 to 8 p.m. starting in August with six Saturdays. There are participants coming from other denominations and area Episcopal churches.

COMING UP

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY (EfM)

Education for Ministry (EfM) is a course created by the University of the South School of Theology at Sewanee that invites participants to study scripture, theology, and church history and tradition.

Within a small group setting, each individual explores the part he or she is meant to play in the fullness of God's world. Members of Christ Church Cathedral facilitate the classes, which meet once a week over the course of the school year for study, conversation, and reflection. Classes meet on Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning, but a third class may be added if there is sufficient interest. Although the course offers four years, students sign up for one year at a time, and enrollment for 2017-2018 is currently open. The registration deadline is August 1, but since space is limited, those interested in participating are encouraged to register as soon as possible. The cost is $350, and some scholarships are available. For more information, please contact Melinda Balsler at mbalsler@christcathedral.org

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL SUMMER READING IDEAS

Do you have a pile of books on your bedside table waiting to be read? The Adult Education Committee asked the Dean what his literary picks are for summer reading. His stack includes Music at Midnight: The Life and Poetry of George Herbert by John Drury, The Holy Longing: The Search for a Christian Spirituality by Ronald Rolheiser and The Passion by Marcus Hummon and the Reverend Becca Stevens. For those of you desiring deeper insight into the religious poet George Herbert (1593-1633), the biography Music at Midnight might fit the bill. If a theologically rich book intrigues you, you might want to pick up The Holy Longing. Author Ronald Rolheiser probes the question, "What is spirituality?" using examples and stories relevant to today. For a quick read with some local connections, The Passion would be a great choice. Authored by the Reverend Becca Stevens and her husband Marcus Hummon, it is about the cantata Hummon wrote with a grant from Christ Church Cathedral. The book includes musical history and theological reflection. The Adult Education Committee would like to commend two books: Jane Crow: The Life of Pauli Murray by Rosalind Rosenberg and Hallelujah Anyway: Rediscovering Mercy by Anne Lamott. Jane Crow is a biography about Pauli Murray, a lawyer who played pivotal roles in the civil rights and women's movements and who was the first African American woman to be ordained an Episcopal priest in the United States. Hallelujah Anyway is Lamott's most recent book. It explores themes of mercy, purpose, kindness, and forgiveness.
