WELCOME TO OUR CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD LEVEL III TRAINEES

Today is the final day of the first quarter of Catechesis of the Good Shepherd training for Level III. Over a dozen Episcopalians from Christ Church Cathedral and area churches have entered into this work. There are visitors here at church this morning from other denominations and from as far away as Texas who are also participating in this work. Please welcome them if you see them and keep them in your prayers. They will return to us in January, May, and September of 2018. We have offered the hospitality of housing and we are thankful for the parishioners who have opened their homes.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

TODAY | 1:00 P.M.

Members of the Christ Church Cathedral Prayer Shawl Ministry knit or crochet prayer shawls for the very ill and those in nursing homes. A member of the clergy delivers the shawl when making a pastoral visit.

Those interested in the Prayer Shawl Ministry will meet with the Reverend Lissa Smith today, at 1 p.m. in her office on the third floor. If you would like to help with this ministry, please come to the meeting!

FAULKNER AND CHRISTIANITY CLASS
THURSDAYS, SEPTEMBER 28 THROUGH NOVEMBER 2
6:00 - 7:30 P.M. | PARISH HALL

Parishioner James Wilson will lead a class examining the writings of William Faulkner and his complicated, often misunderstood relationship to Christianity. The class will focus less on Faulkner's personal biography and public statements on religion, which are often vague and contradictory, and more on several of Faulkner's major works. This class will not only help us gain a preliminary understanding of complicated author, but also help us re-imagine our own faith and its meaning and significance in contemporary life. To register, please contact Melinda Balsler at mbalsler@christcathedral.org

Sister Eliseea Papacioc, a Romanian Orthodox nun and a world-renowned iconographer, will be visiting Christ Church Cathedral on Sunday, October 1, to present her work. "Writing an icon is liturgy," says Sister Eliseea, "for the liturgy is the intervention of God through man, and in making an icon, one should transmit to people what God wants." Her patronage includes private collections, museums, and churches. Please join us in welcoming Sister Eliseea next Sunday afternoon from 3 to 4:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. 2017 FALL SYMPOSIUM

REFUGEE FAITH: DISPLACEMENT, HOMECOMING, AND GOD'S HEART

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 6, 5:45 P.M.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 9:00 A.M.

The fall symposium will feature Dr. C. Melissa Snarr, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Associate Professor of Ethics and Society, Vanderbilt Divinity School.

The international refugee crisis and the unfolding national debate over for whom and how we provide sanctuary provides the backdrop for Dr. Snarr's weekend series about how biblical stories of refugees teach us about the nature and purposes of God. Drawing on her research on interfaith activism for immigrants and refugees, Dr. Snarr offers theologically rich and strategically insightful suggestions for what it means to recognize ours as a "refugee faith" and live our common call accordingly. Dr. Snarr's research focuses on the intersection of religion, social change, and political ethics. As a Christian social ethicist, she draws on a variety of methodologies, with special concentration in sociological and political theory as well as comparative religious ethics to understand how religion transforms the world. Dr. Snarr seeks to bridge the worlds of religious activists and academic ethicists to deepen the understanding of religious traditions and practices in order to enhance the work for justice.

Friday Schedule:

Reception: 5:45 p.m., Dinner: 6:15 p.m., Lecture: 7:00-8:30 p.m.

NEW NURSERY MINISTRY

THIRD SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH | AFTER 8:30 A.M. LITURGY

On the third Sunday of each month, our youngest children, those in the nursery, will join us in having a time of formation after the 8:30 service. Prayer, singing, praise, and reading will be the building blocks of this time. We know that once baptized we are full members of the body of Christ. God is fully present in the lives of the children and we can help them learn to express more fully the love they have for Jesus. This is geared to the toddlers, but all are welcome.

A team of volunteers have been given direction and we would appreciate your prayers for this new ministry. If you are interested in volunteering or simply learning more, please contact Caroline at cbauerschmidt@christcathedral.org
