PREPARING FOR ADVENT SEASON

Here is a small glossary to some of the words/terms you may hear in church over the next two months. Your children will be hearing the prophecies and celebrating the season with songs and wreaths. Whether you are a lifelong Episcopalian who might appreciate a refresher or if you are new to this liturgical style of worship, we hope you will find knowledge that can help you grow your worship of Jesus Christ both in church and at home.

Advent: The first season of the liturgical year, a time of expectant waiting. We are called to prepare ourselves for the birth of Christ the King. This birth occurred more than 2,000 years ago and yet Advent remembrance is celebrated yearly as we remember this great gift from God.

Prophets: People who are listening for and discerning God's Plan and announcing it to the world. Isaiah and Elijah were prophets; so was Martin Luther King Jr. The Old Testament prophets we hear from during Advent foretold the birth of Christ.

Advent Wreath: Jesus is the light of the world. We mark the four weeks of waiting and preparing in this darkest season by lighting a new candle each week. We speak often of hope, peace, joy, and love as we prepare for His coming into our heart and homes.

NIGHT OF LIGHT LITURGY

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6 | 6:30 P.M. | NAVE

This time of year with all of its busyness is difficult to maneuver, even in the best of times, but for those who are heavy of heart due to personal losses it is ever more painful. On Wednesday, December 6, we will gather at 6:30 p.m. in the Nave for the Night of Light Liturgy to acknowledge the suffering of God's people and the coming of the One True Light into the world to guide us through the darkness. This time of worship will include scripture readings, prayers, silence, the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, music, and the lighting of candles. Please plan to attend this Liturgy as we offer our hearts to God and as we wait, hope, and heal. For more information, please contact Laura Copeland at lrcopeland8@gmail.com

ADVENT BLUE DURING THE ADVENT SEASON

During the season of Advent, blue vestments and altar hangings, given by a patron of the Cathedral, will be placed in use this year. The blue or deep blue of Advent recalls the penitential themes of Lent but is qualified by the overt and great joy we harbor in anticipation of Christ's first coming in Bethlehem. The emphasis on waiting in Advent has us sit with shepherds and wise men and Mary, all of whom wait and watch and wonder, often under the deep blue sky or by the light of the Star in the East.

Note: The history of the use of liturgical colors is wide, varied, and often quite local—particularly in the Episcopal Church and in the Church of England (see the Church Ordo as produced by Ashby). The Cathedral has largely followed the precedents of the Roman Catholic Church (inclusive of the use of purple and rose during Advent). But some pre- and post-Reformation traditions in the Church of England incorporated or provided for the use of blue during Advent. In recent times (mid-20th century on), some have believed that the use of blue in Advent helped the faithful reclaim and live into the variety of Advent themes implied by BCP prayers, holding them in tension with penitential characteristics of the season preserved in the practice of the Roman Catholic Church.

SUNDAY TOURS

Tours of the Nave are conducted after the closing organ voluntary at the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Liturgies. Please join a guide near the lectern.

WEAPON-FREE POLICY

The Cathedral clergy and Vestry have declared the Cathedral to be a weapon-free place of worship, prayer, study, and fellowship, as a sign of Eucharistic peace. Please leave any weapons you are licensed to carry at home or in your car before entering the Cathedral grounds.
