ADVENT BLUE DURING THE ADVENT SEASON

During the season of Advent, blue vestments and altar hangings, given by a patron of the Cathedral, will be placed in use this year. The blue or deep blue of Advent recalls the penitential themes of Lent but is qualified by the overt and great joy we harbor in anticipation of Christ's first coming in Bethlehem. The emphasis on waiting in Advent has us sit with shepherds and wise men and Mary, all of whom wait and watch and wonder, often under the deep blue sky or by the light of the Star in the East.

Note: The history of the use of liturgical colors is wide, varied, and often quite local—particularly in the Episcopal Church and in the Church of England (see the Church Ordo as produced by Ashby). The Cathedral has largely followed the precedents of the Roman Catholic Church (inclusive of the use of purple and rose during Advent). But some pre- and post-Reformation traditions in the Church of England incorporated or provided for the use of blue during Advent. In recent times (mid-20th century on), some have believed that the use of blue in Advent helped the faithful reclaim and live into the variety of Advent themes implied by BCP prayers, holding them in tension with penitential characteristics of the season preserved in the practice of the Roman Catholic Church.

THE CATHEDRAL WELCOMES

The Reverend Dr. David Marshall, Senior Research Fellow at the Berkley Center for Religion, Peace, and World Affairs and Academic Director of the Building Bridges Seminar at Georgetown University, as our preacher today. His topic will be "Islam in the Modern World: Making Sense of Diverse Muslim Responses to the Challenges of Modernity."

ROOM IN THE INN

The Cathedral hosts men from Room In The Inn every Thursday evening in the Annex, including Thursday, November 23, Thanksgiving evening. The Thanksgiving dinner with roasted turkey and all the trimmings was given to these homeless men by the Belle Meade Country Club. This act of generosity was happily enjoyed by our homeless guests.

NIGHT OF LIGHT LITURGY

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6 | 6:30 P.M. | NAVE

This time of year with all of its busyness is difficult to maneuver, even in the best of times, but for those who are heavy of heart due to personal losses it is ever more painful. On Wednesday, December 6, we will gather at 6:30 p.m. in the Nave for the Night of Light Liturgy to acknowledge the suffering of God's people and the coming of the One True Light into the world to guide us through the darkness. This time of worship will include scripture readings, prayers, silence, the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, music, and the lighting of candles. Please plan to attend this Liturgy as we offer our hearts to God and as we wait, hope, and heal. For more information, please contact Lissa Smith at lsmith@christcathedral.org

CLIMATE VIGIL AND INTERFAITH LITURGY

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7 | 5:00 P.M. | FEDERAL BUILDING

JOIN THE CATHEDRAL'S ANNUAL JESSE TREE EVENT

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 16 | 1:00 P.M. | PARISH HALL

"A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse and a branch shall grow out of his roots." Isaiah 11:1

Many in our parish family are unable to come to church due to illness or infirmity. A wonderful way to share the love of Christ during the season of Advent is to make a visit to a parishioner and present them with a Jesse Tree*. Please consider gathering your family or a group of friends and join us on December 16 at 1 p.m. for a brief time of fellowship and carol singing before being sent out to make your visit. If you have a family member who would like to receive a visit on December 16, or if you would like to participate, please contact the Reverend Lissa Smith at lsmith@christcathedral.org

The Jesse Tree is a small evergreen that represents Jesus' family tree that rises from Jesse of Bethlehem, the father of King David. It is decorated with symbols portraying Jesus' ancestors.*
