Today the Cathedral welcomes Dr. Wade Munday as the guest presenter at the Dean's Forum. Dr. Munday is executive director of Tennessee Justice for Our Neighbors, a non-profit organization that provides humanitarian immigration legal services to vulnerable people fleeing global conflicts, poverty, and persecution. Dr. Munday will return to the Cathedral on Sunday, April 22, to begin a pop-up adult formation series exploring the spiritual and physical journeys that can help us find solidarity with people of other faiths, nationalities, and political opinions.

NURSERY CHRISTIAN FORMATION TRAINING

SUNDAYS, APRIL 8, 15, AND 29 | 8:00 A.M. | CHEEK HALL

Once a month, our youngest children, those in the nursery, have a time of formation after the 8:30 a.m. Liturgy. Prayer, singing, praise, and reading are the building blocks of this time. This formation time is geared to toddlers, but all are welcome.

A team of volunteers has been trained, but we would like to expand the offering to twice a month. Direction for leading this formation time will be offered at 8:00 a.m. in Cheek Hall on April 8, 15, and 29. If you are interested in volunteering or simply learning more, please contact Caroline Bauerschmidt at cbauerschmidt@christcathedral.org

On April 8, Caroline Bauerschmidt, Director of Children's Ministries, will lead the session on Catechesis of the Good Shepherd and other offerings for our children. On April 15, Alison Bocking, Director of Youth Ministries, will discuss the youth curriculum. AT THE CATHEDRAL

NOAH NEXT STEP CONVERSATIONS

NOAH's School Discipline Subcommittee has been focusing on the racial disparities in school discipline, which are the beginnings of the "school-to-prison pipeline."

The Metro Nashville Public School administration has agreed to include funding in next year's budget for training and resources for "restorative practice" and other positive discipline methods. These CAN reduce the racial disparity and keep more kids in school, being productive! HOWEVER, the Metro School Board and Metro Council still need to approve this funding!

On four evenings in mid-April, NOAH is meeting with parents, community members, and others to outline the need and the next steps to get the support needed for these important programs.

PAWS & CLAWS PASTORAL MINISTRY FOR PET OWNERS

"And God said, 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind' ... And God saw that it was good." (Genesis 1:24-25)

Our pets aren't just animals; often they're beloved companions and members of our families. When a pet gets sick, dies, or has to be mercifully put down, it can be a major event in the lives of those who love them. It can be a blessing to have someone to talk to during those times. If you or someone you know needs to meet or talk, feel free to contact Brother Russell Peter Gallagher n/BSG at russellpetergallagher@gmail.com or the Reverend Matthew Lewis at mlewis@christcathedral.org

SHARE YOUR CATHEDRAL PICS!

Help us keep our photo archive up to date! We would love to see and possibly use photos you've taken around the Cathedral and at Cathedral events. It's very easy to share them to our Dropbox at <http://bit.ly/2yDPY0i> You do not need to have a Dropbox account to do so—just click on the link and follow the directions. It's a snap!

GUILD OF THE CHRIST CHILD

One aspect of the Cathedral's Pastoral Care ministry is to prepare for and celebrate the birth and/or adoption of children to members of the parish. We do this through prayers, notes, meals, and gifts. If you are expecting or adopting a child, please share this news with the Reverend Lissa Smith at lsmith@christcathedral.org

CALLING FOR WAYFARER VOLUNTEERS

Despite the changing face of Nashville, homeless and transient individuals are still with us. On Sunday mornings they often come to the Cathedral seeking help because there are very few social service agencies open on Sundays. Through the Wayfarer Volunteer program, two Volunteers are available each Sunday to greet and meet those who seek help from us. These Volunteers provide a welcoming smile, sometimes a prayer, and a recommendation of where they can find a meal. There are currently 20 Wayfarer Volunteers who sign up for two hours at least one Sunday every three months. They are Ben Fuqua, Bruce Dobie, Claire Evans Martin, David Long, Ed Miller, Fletch Coke, Bill Coke, Jane Boram, Jon Stanley, Ken Penegar, Libby Patterson, Melissa Rose, Patti West, Walker Willse, David Kiester, Eric Scowden, Fielding Logan, Harrison Stuart, Jean Crosby, and Paul Moeller. Ask any of these volunteers about the program and what it means to them. If you are interested in becoming a Wayfarer Volunteer or need further information, contact Bill Coke at wcokel@bellsouth.net
