THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON – Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment will ever touch them.
In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
and their departure was thought to be a disaster,
and their going from us to be their destruction;

but they are at peace.
 For though in the sight of others they were punished,
 their hope is full of immortality.
 Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
 because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
 like gold in the furnace he tried them,
 and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.
 In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,
 and will run like sparks through the stubble.
 They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
 and the Lord will reign over them forever.
 Those who trust in him will understand truth,
 and the faithful will abide with him in love,
 because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones,
 and he watches over his elect.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24

Mode 1

- 1 The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell therein.
- 2 For it is he who founded it upon the seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep. Refrain
- 3 "Who can ascend the hill of the Lord?" *
and who can stand in his holy place?"
- 4 "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud. Refrain
- 5 They shall receive a blessing from the Lord *
and a just reward from the God of their salvation."

6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob. Refrain

7 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in. Refrain

8 “Who is this King of glory?” *
“The Lord, strong and mighty,
the Lord, mighty in battle.” Refrain

9 Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.

10 “Who is he, this King of glory?” *
“The Lord of hosts,
he is the King of glory.” Refrain

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON – Revelation 21:1-6a

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them as their God;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

People

Glo - ry to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved.

He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me.

I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

ANTHEM

Light Eternal

Cecilia McDowall
(b. 1951)

Yes, he is here in this open field, in sunlight, among the few young trees set out to modify the bare facts

he's here, but only
because we are here.
When we go, he goes with us

to be your hands that never
do violence, your eyes,
that wonder, your lives

that daily praise life
by living it, by laughter.

He is never alone here,
never cold in the field of graves.

At David's Grave
Denise Levertov from Relearning the Alphabet

May eternal light shine upon them, O Lord,
with thy saints forever, for thou art merciful.

Lux aeterna.

Grant them eternal rest, O Lord,
and may everlasting light shine upon them.

Anthem

The Souls of the Righteous

Ralph Vaughan Williams
(1872-1958)

The souls of the righteous are in the hands of God,
and there shall no torment touch them.

In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die,
and their departure is taken for misery,

and their going from us to be utter destruction,
but they are in peace.

For though they be punished in the sight of men,
yet is their hope full of immortality;

and having been a little chastised,
they shall be greatly rewarded.

For God proved them and found them worthy;
worthy of himself.
