

A Litany for Peace

November 11, 2018
8:30 a.m. & 11 a.m

Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God grant us peace, saying, "Give peace, O Lord in all the world."

for the service men and women who have died in the violence of war,
each one remembered by and known to God;

Grant us peace;
Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.

for those who love them in death as in life,
offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss;

Grant us peace;
Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.

for all members of the armed forces who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return;

Grant us peace;
Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.

for civilian women, children and men whose lives are disfigured by war or terror,
calling to mind in penitence the anger and hatreds of humanity;

Grant us peace;
Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.

for peace-makers and peace-keepers,
who seek to keep this fallen world secure and free;

Grant us peace;
Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.

for the Church of God, gathered together by the Suffering Servant, may its members lay down their lives and live in peace with one another and all of God's good creation;

Grant us peace;

Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.

for all who bear the burden and privilege of leadership,
political, military and religious;
asking for gifts of wisdom and resolve in the search for reconciliation and peace.

Grant us peace;

Give peace, O Lord, in all the world.
