VISITORS AND NEWCOMERS

Welcome to Christ Church Cathedral! We are delighted that you have joined us this morning. Children of any age are welcome to attend the Liturgy, but if you prefer, a nursery for children 6 weeks to 5 years of age is also available in the Undercroft. An usher will be happy to direct you. You may pick up copies of Sunday Paper at any of the Nave entrances for the young children in your family who are accompanying you. If you are attending the 7 a.m. Liturgy, we invite you to join us afterward for breakfast in Cheek Hall downstairs. If you are attending the 8:30 a.m.

Liturgy, come to our Christian Education classes afterward, and if you are attending the 11 a.m. Liturgy, please stop off afterward at the Coffee Minute in the Parish Hall. In addition, after the 8:30 and 11 a.m. Liturgies, we invite you to come meet one of the clergy at the lectern with the angel, so we can get to know you in person. We look forward to meeting you! If you would like more information about Christ Church Cathedral, contact the Very Reverend Timothy Kimbrough at tkimbrough@christcathedral.org

ROD MCGAHA, TRUMPET
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15 | 7:30 P.M. | NAVE

Popular trumpet virtuoso Rod McGaha combines a wide variety of influences into an eclectic, globally conscious blend with a fresh sound. Give your valentine an evening of jazz—much more romantic than a box of chocolates!

Childcare provided. Reception following.
Suggested donation $15 | $5 students

TOURS

Tours of the church are conducted after the closing organ voluntary at the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Liturgies. Please join a guide near the lectern.

The Cathedral clergy wish to thank Kevin-Antonio Smallwood for his year of Service Field Education at Christ Church Cathedral. Kevin-Antonio bids us farewell this weekend. He will graduate this spring from The School of Theology, University of the South. Please greet him and thank him during the Coffee Minute at 12:20 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

THE ORDER OF THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 10 | 9:45 A.M. | SECOND FLOOR

RITE OF RECONCILIATION

The third graders in our parish who come to Catechesis of the Good Shepherd on Sunday mornings have a special opportunity to grow in grace. They will come together over five Sundays to read and meditate on particular scriptures and to pray for themselves and others. They will read and then discuss Jesus's parables of love, forgiveness, and joy. During a day-long retreat at the end of the five weeks, they will each talk with a priest about where in their lives they haven't used the gifts that have been given them and what gifts they have used well. They will have the opportunity to say "I'm sorry" and to be changed by Jesus's love. This love shown to us by Jesus is expressed through the priest as an absolution. This is formally called "The Reconciliation of a Penitent in the Book of Common Prayer. At the Eucharist on that day, they will celebrate with Jesus and with each other the forgiveness of those sins.

There are two gifts that we look at during these weeks together: confession and communion. God created an amazing world and then when we fell short, He sent Jesus to redeem us, to make it right again. Anyone can tell you where they have fallen short, not made the right choices, allowed evil and sin to grow. Our world and each of us individually have been given numerous gifts. We often do not use these gifts as we should; sometimes we do not use them at all. Being able to say "I'm sorry" is a great relief. Saying this in the context of Jesus's abiding love and care is truly wonderful. It is a form of saying "thank you" for the gifts we have been given. Coming together to share the Eucharist, to be in communion with Jesus and each other, is a joyous occasion.

Starting today, please pray for this year's class of third graders, their families, our priests, and the catechists joining with them in this process.

WEAPON-FREE POLICY

The Cathedral clergy and Vestry have declared the Cathedral to be a weapon-free place of worship, prayer, study, and fellowship, as a sign of Eucharistic peace. Please leave any weapons you are licensed to carry at home or in your car before entering the Cathedral grounds.

MS CHEAP PENNY DRIVE FOR SECOND HARVEST FOOD BANK

Thank you so much to everyone at Christ Church Cathedral who participated, supported, encouraged, or donated to this year's Ms. Cheap Penny Drive for Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee. I appreciate your support of this fight against hunger and want you to know that your generosity will help feed hungry people right here at home. The Cathedral total of more than $2,500 translates into 10,000 meals. Many thanks from me and from Second Harvest and your hungry neighbors.

CALLING FOR WAYFARER VOLUNTEERS

Despite the changing face of Nashville, homeless and transient individuals are still with us. On Sunday mornings, they often come to the Cathedral seeking help because there are very few social service agencies open on Sundays. Through the Wayfarer Volunteer program, two Volunteers are available each Sunday to greet and meet those who seek help from us. These Volunteers provide a welcoming smile, sometimes a prayer, and a recommendation of where they can find a meal.

If you are interested in becoming a Wayfarer Volunteer or need further information, contact Walker Willse at walkerwillse@hotmail.com or Jon Stanley at jstanley@bassberry.com

WEAPONS INTO PLOWSHARES

SHANE CLAIBORNE AND MICHAEL MARTIN

FRIDAY, MARCH 15 | 6:00 P.M. | NAVE

On Friday, March 15, from 6 to 8 p.m. the Cathedral will welcome Shane Claiborne and Mike Martin as part of their 38-city Beating Guns tour. During the event, Mike, a Mennonite pastor turned blacksmith, will turn a gun into a garden tool on a forge set up in the parking lot, in a demonstration of the words of the prophet Isaiah: "and they shall beat their swords into plowshares." (Isaiah 2:4)

The evening will include music and a discussion of the spiritual dynamics of a culture of fear and violence. Attendees will have an opportunity to write the hostilities of their hearts on pieces of paper and then burn them in the forge. Shane will present ideas for ways to address the epidemic of gun violence in America and will eventually be joined by Mike, who will present the tool he has made and give it away. The evening will conclude with a "benediction" in which Shane and Mike will send attendees out to live into the prophet Isaiah's message. Afterward, Shane and Mike will be available to sign copies of their book Beating Guns: Hope for People Who Are Weary of Violence.

CHANGE OF INFORMATION CARDS

If you have a change of address, phone number, or email address, please pick up a card on the pew rack in the reception area. Fill it out and return it to the receptionist. Thank you!

PARKING

On Sunday mornings, the A and B lots (9th & Broadway) are reserved for guests with mobility challenges and those with disabled plates or placards. Parking for the able-bodied is available in the C lot (9th & Commerce). The 10th & Commerce Premier lot is available for Choir members, Sunday school teachers, and Cathedral staff members. Frist Art Museum Visitor's lot (10th & Demonbreun) offers free parking with a voucher. Pick up a parking voucher from the receptionist on your way out of the church and feed it into the machine as you exit the lot. Go to <https://www.christcathedral.org/parking> for more information.
