In addition, after the 8:30 and 11 a.m. Liturgies, we invite you to come meet one of the clergy at the lectern with the angel, so we can get to know you in person. We look forward to meeting you! ### ASH WEDNESDAY

MARCH 6 | 7:00 A.M., 12:15 P.M., AND 6:00 P.M. | NAVE

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, when we begin a time of reflection, self-examination, and spiritual redirection. Lent originated in the very earliest days of the Church as preparation for Easter, when the faithful rededicated themselves and when converts were instructed in the faith and prepared for baptism. Jesus was sent by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness for 40 days to prepare for his ministry. By observing Lent, we join Jesus on his fast in the wilderness as we consider our mortality and dependence on God. During the Ash Wednesday Liturgy, the foreheads of worshipers are marked with an ashen cross. Being marked with a cross symbolizes that the person belongs to God. This is in imitation of the mark with chrism that is put on in baptism, when we are "marked as Christ's own forever." The ashes are traditionally made from palm fronds from the previous year's Palm Sunday observance.

TOURS

Tours of the church are conducted after the closing organ voluntary at the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Liturgies. Please join a guide near the lectern.

These are intimate, thoughtful pieces—alive with warmth and wit.

Continuing our tradition of healing prayer ministry and liturgy within our parish community, during BreakingBread@6 on Sunday, March 10, we will offer a reflective worship to acknowledge the brokenness of our world, our communities, and our relationships with one another, as we uphold the Living God whose power renews and heals us. Please join us for this time of prayer, readings, music, candle lighting, and Eucharist as we continue our journey through Lent in peace and hope. ## WEAPONS INTO PLOWSHARES SHANE CLAIBORNE AND MICHAEL MARTIN FRIDAY, MARCH 15 | 6:00 P.M. | NAVE

On Friday, March 15, from 6 to 8 p.m. the Cathedral will welcome Shane Claiborne and Mike Martin as part of their 38-city Beating Guns tour. During the event, Mike, a Mennonite pastor turned blacksmith, will turn a gun into a garden tool on a forge set up in the parking lot, in a demonstration of the words of the prophet Isaiah: "and they shall beat their swords into plowshares." (Isaiah 2:4) The evening will include music and a discussion of the spiritual dynamics of a culture of fear and violence. Attendees will have an opportunity to write the hostilities of their hearts on pieces of paper and then burn them in the forge. Shane will present ideas for ways to address the epidemic of gun violence in America and will eventually be joined by Mike, who will present the tool he has made and give it away. The evening will conclude with a "benediction" in which Shane and Mike will send attendees out to live into the prophet Isaiah's message. Afterward, Shane and Mike will be available to sign copies of their book Beating Guns: Hope for People Who Are Weary of Violence.
